

Summa Theologiae

Table of Contents: Part 1-2

PROLOGUE TO PART 1-2	1
Question 1: Man's Ultimate End	1
Article 1: Does a man act for the sake of an end?	1
Article 2: Is acting for the sake of an end peculiar to a rational nature?	2
Article 3: Do human acts take their species from their end?	3
Article 4: Is there some ultimate end of a human life, or is there an infinite procession of ends?	5
Article 5: Can one man's will be simultaneously directed to many things as ultimate ends? ..	6
Article 6: Is everything a man wills such that he wills it for the sake of his ultimate end?	7
Article 7: Is there a single ultimate end for all men?	8
Article 8: Do all other things share in man's ultimate end?	9
Question 2: The Things That Man's Beatitude Lies In	10
Article 1: Does man's beatitude lie in riches?	10
Article 2: Does man's good lie in honors?	11
Article 3: Does man's beatitude lie in glory or fame?	12
Article 4: Does man's beatitude lie in power?	13
Article 5: Does man's beatitude lie in any bodily good?	14
Article 6: Does man's beatitude lie in delight or pleasure?	15
Article 7: Does man's beatitude lie in a good of the soul?	17
Article 8: Does man's beatitude lie in a created good?	18
Question 3: What Beatitude Is	20
Article 1: Is beatitude something uncreated?	20
Article 2: Is beatitude an operation [i.e., an action]?	21
Article 3: Does beatitude consist in an operation of the sentient part of the soul or only in an operation of the intellective part??	22
Article 4: Does beatitude consist in an act of the will?	23
Article 5: Does beatitude consist in an operation of the speculative intellective or of the practical intellect?	25
Article 6: Does man's beatitude consist in the sort of thinking that belongs to the speculative sciences?	26
Article 7: Does man's beatitude consist in the cognition of the separated substances, i.e., the angels?	28
Article 8: Does man's beatitude lie in his seeing God's very essence?	29
Question 4: What is Required for Beatitude	31
Article 1: Is delight required for beatitude?	31
Article 2: Is the act of delighting more central to beatitude than the act of seeing?	32
Article 3: Is comprehending required for beatitude?	33
Article 4: Is rectitude of will required for beatitude?	34
Article 5: Is the body required for beatitude?	35
Article 6: Is the perfection of the body required for beatitude?	37
Article 7: Are exterior goods required for beatitude?	38
Article 8: Are friends necessary for beatitude?	39

Question 5: The Attainment of Beatitude	41
Article 1: Can a man acquire beatitude?	41
Article 2: Can one man be more blessed than another?	42
Article 3: Can beatitude be had in this life?	43
Article 4: Can beatitude be lost?	44
Article 5: Is a man able to attain beatitude by his own natural powers?	45
Article 6: Can a man be made blessed through the action of a higher creature, viz., an angel?	47
Article 7: Are any human works required in order to obtain beatitude from God?	48
Article 8: Does everyone desire beatitude?	49
Question 6: The Voluntary and the Involuntary	51
Article 1: Is voluntariness found in human acts?	51
Article 2: Does voluntariness exist in brute animals?	53
Article 3: Can there be voluntariness in the absence of an act?	54
Article 4: Can violence be done to the will?	55
Article 5: Is violence a cause of involuntariness?	56
Article 6: Is fear a cause of involuntariness absolutely speaking?	57
Article 7: Is concupiscence a cause of involuntariness?	59
Article 8: Is ignorance a cause of involuntariness?	60
Question 7: The Circumstances of Human Acts	62
Article 1: Is a circumstance an accident of a human act?	62
Article 2: Should the theologian consider the circumstances of human acts?	63
Article 3: Are the circumstances correctly enumerated in Ethics 3?	64
Article 4: Is it the case, as Ethics 3 asserts, that the principal circumstances are why? and the things in which the operation exists?	65
Question 8: The Objects of the Will	67
Article 1: Is the will directed only toward the good?	67
Article 2: Is will (or willing) directed only toward the end or also toward the means to the end?	68
Article 3: Is it by the very same act that the will is directed both toward the end and toward the means to the end??	70
Question 9: What Moves the Will	72
Article 1: Is the will moved by the intellect?	72
Article 2: Can the will be moved by the sentient appetite?	73
Article 3: Does the will move itself?	74
Article 4: Is the will moved by anything exterior to it?	75
Article 5: Is the human will moved by any celestial body?	76
Article 6: Is the will moved by God alone as an exterior principle?	77
Question 10: The Modality with Which the Will is Moved	79
Article 1: Is the will moved naturally toward anything?	79
Article 2: Is the will moved with necessity by its object?	80
Article 3: Is the will moved with necessity by the passions of the lower appetite?	81
Article 4: Is the will moved with necessity by God?	83

Question 11: Enjoying as an Act of the Will	84
Article 1: Does the act of enjoying belong only to an appetitive power?	84
Article 2: Does the act of enjoying belong only to men?	85
Article 3: Is the act of enjoying directed only toward the ultimate end?	86
Article 4: Is the act of enjoying directed only toward an end that is possessed?	87
Question 12: Intending	89
Article 1: Is intending an act of the intellect or an act of the will?	89
Article 2: Is intending directed only toward the ultimate end?	90
Article 3: Can someone intend more than one thing at the same time?	90
Article 4: Is intending an end one and the same movement as intending the means to that end?	92
Article 5: Do brute animals intend an end?	93
Question 13: Choosing	94
Article 1: Is choosing an act of the will or an act of reason?	94
Article 2: Does the act of choosing belong to brute animals?	95
Article 3: Is an act of choosing directed only toward the means to an end?	96
Article 4: Is it only with respect to human acts that there is an act of choosing?	97
Article 5: Is an act of choosing directed only toward what is possible?	98
Article 6: Does a man choose with necessity?	99
Question 14: Deliberating or Taking Counsel, Which Precedes Choosing	101
Article 1: Does deliberating or taking counsel count as inquiry?	101
Article 2: Does deliberating concern the end or just the means to an end?	102
Article 3: Does deliberating or taking counsel concern only things that are done by us?	103
Article 4: Is there deliberating or taking counsel with respect to everything that is done by us?	104
Article 5: Does deliberating proceed by way of analysis?	105
Article 6: Does deliberation's inquiry go on ad infinitum?	105
Question 15: Consenting, Which is an Act of The Will concerning the Means to an End	107
Article 1: Does consenting belong only to the apprehensive part of the soul?	107
Article 2: Does consenting belong to brute animals?	108
Article 3: Does consenting concern the end?	108
Article 4: Does consenting to an act always belong to higher reason?	110
Question 16: Using, Which is an Act of the Will concerning the Means to an End	111
Article 1: Is using an act of the will?	111
Article 2: Does using belong to brute animals?	112
Article 3: Can using concern even the ultimate end?	112
Article 4: Does using precede choosing?	113
Question 17: Acts Commanded by the Will	115
Article 1: Is commanding an act of the will or an act of reason?	115
Article 2: Does commanding belong to brute animals?	116
Article 3: Does using precede commanding?	117
Article 4: Is the commanded act the same act as the very act of commanding?	118
Article 5: Are acts of the will commanded?	119
Article 6: Are acts of reason commanded?	120
Article 7: Are acts of the sentient appetite commanded?	121
Article 8: Are acts of the vegetative soul subject to reason's command?	122
Article 9: Do the members of the body obey reason in their acts?	123

Question 18: The Goodness and Badness of Human Acts in General	125
Article 1: Is every human action good, or are some actions bad?	125
Article 2: Does an action have goodness or badness from its object?	126
Article 3: Does an action have goodness or badness from its circumstances?	127
Article 4: Does a human act have goodness or badness from its end?	128
Article 5: Do moral acts differ in species because of their goodness and badness?	129
Article 6: Do the goodness and badness derived from the end make for diverse species among acts?	130
Article 7: Is the species of goodness derived from the end contained under the species of goodness derived from the object in the way that a species is contained under a genus?	131
Article 8: Is any act indifferent by its species?	133
Article 9: Is any act indifferent as an individual?	134
Article 10: Can a circumstance constitute a species of good or bad act?	135
Article 11: Does every circumstance relevant to goodness and badness give an act its species?	136
 Question 19: The Goodness and Badness of the Interior Act of Willing	 138
Article 1: Does the goodness of an act of willing depend on its object?	138
Article 2: Does the goodness of an act of willing depend solely on its object?	139
Article 3: Does the goodness of an act of willing depend on reason?	140
Article 4: Does the goodness of a human act of willing depend on the eternal law?	141
Article 5: Is an act of willing bad if it disagrees with reason when reason is mistaken?	141
Article 6: Is an act of willing good if it agrees with reason when reason is mistaken?	143
Article 7: Does the goodness of an act of willing depend on the act of intending the end? ..	145
Article 8: Does the quantity or amount of goodness in an act of willing depend on the amount of goodness in the act of intending?	146
Article 9: Does the goodness of a human will or act of willing depend on its being conformed to God's will?	147
Article 10: Should a human act of willing always be conformed to God's will with respect to what is willed?	148
 Question 20: The Goodness and Badness of the Exterior Act	 151
Article 1: Do goodness and badness exist in the exterior act before they exist in the act of willing?	151
Article 2: Do the entire goodness and badness of exterior acts depend on the act of willing? ..	152
Article 3: Is the goodness or badness of the interior act of willing the same as the goodness or badness of the exterior act?	153
Article 4: Does the exterior act add any goodness or badness beyond that of the interior act? ..	154
Article 5: Do subsequent events add to an act's goodness or badness?	155
Article 6: Can a single act be both good and bad?	157
 Question 21: What Accrues to Human Acts by Reason of their Goodness or Badness	 158
Article 1: Does a human act have the character of being upright or deviant insofar as it is good or bad?	158
Article 2: Does a human act have the character of being praiseworthy or blameworthy from the fact that it is good or bad?	159
Article 3: Does a human act have the character of being meritorious or demeritorious because of its goodness or badness?	161
Article 4: Does a good or bad human act have the character of being meritorious or demeritorious in relation to God?	162

Question 22: The Subject of the Passions of the Soul	164
Article 1: Are there passions in the soul?	164
Article 2: Are the passions in the apprehensive part of the soul more than in the appetitive part?	165
Article 3: Are the passions in the sentient appetite more than in the intellective appetite? ..	167
Question 23: The Differences among the Passions	168
Article 1: Do the same passions exist in the irascible and concupiscible powers?	168
Article 2: Is the contrariety among the passions of the irascible power based only on the contrariety between the good and the bad?	169
Article 3: Does every passion of the soul have a contrary?	171
Article 4: Is it possible for passions that differ in species and are not contrary to one another to exist in the same power?	171
Question 24: Goodness and Badness in the Passions of the Soul	174
Article 1: Is any passion morally good or morally bad?	174
Article 2: Is every passion of the soul morally bad?	175
Article 3: Does a passion always diminish a moral act's goodness?	176
Article 4: Is any passion of the soul morally good or bad by its species?	177
Question 25: The Ordering of the Passions with respect to One Another	179
Article 1: Are the passions of the irascible power prior to the passions of the concupiscible power?	179
Article 2: Is love the first among the passions of the concupiscible power?	180
Article 3: Is hope the first among the passions of the irascible power?	181
Article 4: Are the four principal passions joy and sadness, hope and fear?	183
Question 26: Love	185
Article 1: Does love exist in the concupiscible power?	185
Article 2: Is love a passion?	186
Article 3: Is love (amor) the same as elective love (dilectio)?	187
Article 4: Is love appropriately divided into love of friendship and love of concupiscence? ..	188
Question 27: The Causes of Love	190
Article 1: Is the good the only cause of love?	190
Article 2: Is cognition a cause of love?	191
Article 3: Is likeness a cause of love?	192
Article 4: Can any of the other passions be a cause of love?	193
Question 28: The Effects of Love	194
Article 1: Is union an effect of love?	194
Article 2: Is love a cause of mutual indwelling in the sense that the lover exists in what is loved and vice versa?	195
Article 3: Is ecstasy an effect of love?	196
Article 4: Is jealousy an effect of love?	197
Article 5: Is love a harmful passion?	198
Article 6: Does a lover do everything out of love?	200

Question 29: Hatred	201
Article 1: Is the cause and object of hatred the bad ?	201
Article 2: Is love a cause of hatred?	202
Article 3: Is hatred stronger than love?	203
Article 4: Can someone hate himself?	204
Article 5: Can someone hate the truth?	205
Article 6: Can there be hatred of something in general?	206
Question 30: Concupiscence	208
Article 1: Does concupiscence or sentient desire exist just in the sentient appetite?	208
Article 2: Is concupiscence a specific passion of the concupiscible power?	209
Article 3: Are some instances of concupiscence natural and others non-natural?	210
Article 4: Is concupiscence infinite or unlimited?	211
Question 31: Pleasure in Itself	213
Article 1: Is pleasure a passion?	213
Article 2: Does pleasure exist in time?	214
Article 3: Is joy altogether the same thing as pleasure?	215
Article 4: Does pleasure exist in the intellective appetite?	216
Article 5: Are corporeal and sensible pleasures greater than intelligible spiritual pleasures?	217
Article 6: Are the pleasures associated with touch greater than the pleasures associated with the other senses?	219
Article 7: Are any pleasures non-natural?	220
Article 8: Is one pleasure contrary to another?	221
Question 32: The Causes of Pleasure	222
Article 1: Is operation a cause of pleasure?	222
Article 2: Is movement a cause of pleasure?	223
Article 3: Are hope and memory causes of pleasure?	224
Article 4: Is sadness a cause of pleasure?	225
Article 5: Are the actions of others a cause of pleasure for us?	226
Article 6: Is doing good for another a cause of pleasure?	227
Article 7: Is likeness a cause of pleasure?	228
Article 8: Is wonder a cause of pleasure?	229
Question 33: The Effects of Pleasure	231
Article 1: Is being widened an effect of pleasure?	231
Article 2: Is pleasure a cause of a desire for pleasure itself?	232
Article 3: Does pleasure impede the use of reason?	233
Article 4: Does pleasure perfect an operation?	234
Question 34: The Goodness and Badness of Pleasures	236
Article 1: Is every pleasure bad?	236
Article 2: Is every pleasure good?	237
Article 3: Is any pleasure the best thing?	238
Article 4: Is pleasure the measure or rule of moral goodness and badness?	240

Question 35: Pain or Sadness in Itself	241
Article 1: Is pain a passion of the soul?	241
Article 2: Is sadness or sorrow the same as pain?	242
Article 3: Is sadness or pain contrary to pleasure?	243
Article 4: Is every instance of sadness contrary to every instance of pleasure?	244
Article 5: Is there a sadness that is contrary to the pleasure of contemplation?	245
Article 6: Is sadness to be avoided more than pleasure is to be desired?	247
Article 7: Is exterior pain greater than the interior pain of the heart?	249
Article 8: Is Damascene's division of sadness into four species correct?	250
Question 36: The Causes of Sadness or Pain	253
Article 1: Is it a lost good that is a cause of pain rather than a conjoined evil?	253
Article 2: Is concupiscence a cause of pain or sadness?	254
Article 3: Is a desire for oneness a cause of pain?	255
Article 4: Should a greater power be posited as a cause of pain?	256
Question 37: The Effects of Pain or Sadness	258
Article 1: Does pain remove the ability to learn something new?	258
Article 2: Is the mind's being weighed down an effect of sadness?	259
Article 3: Does sadness impede every operation?	260
Article 4: Is it sadness that inflicts the most harm on the body?	261
Question 38: The Remedies for Pain or Sadness	263
Article 1: Is pain or sadness lessened by every instance of pleasure?	263
Article 2: Does weeping lessen sadness?	264
Article 3: Does the pain of a compassionate friend lessen sadness?	265
Article 4: Does contemplating the truth lessen pain?	265
Article 5: Do sleeping and bathing lessen sadness?	266
Question 39: The Goodness and Badness of Sadness or Pain	268
Article 1: Is every instance of sadness bad?	268
Article 2: Does sadness have the character of an upright good?	269
Article 3: Can sadness be a useful good?	270
Article 4: Is sadness the greatest evil?	271
Question 40: Hope and Despair	273
Article 1: Is hope the same thing as desire or avid desire?	273
Article 2: Does hope belong to the cognitive power?	274
Article 3: Does hope exist in brute animals?	275
Article 4: Is despair contrary to hope?	276
Article 5: Is experience a cause of hope?	277
Article 6: Are youthfulness and inebriation causes of hope?	278
Article 7: Is hope a cause of love?	279
Article 8: Does hope facilitate action?	279
Question 41: Fear in Itself	281
Article 1: Is fear a passion of the soul?	281
Article 2: Is fear a specific passion or a generic passion?	282
Article 3: Is there such a thing as natural fear?	283
Article 4: Does Damascene correctly assign the species of fear?	284

Question 42: The Objects of Fear	286
Article 1: Is the object of fear something good or something bad?	286
Article 2: Is there fear of evils of nature?	287
Article 3: Is there fear of evils of sin?	288
Article 4: Can fear be feared?	289
Article 5: Are unfamiliar and sudden things more to be feared?	290
Article 6: Are evils for which there is no remedy more to be feared?	291
 Question 43: The Causes of Fear	 292
Article 1: Is love a cause of fear?	292
Article 2: Is weakness a cause of fear?	293
 Question 44: The Effects of Fear	 295
Article 1: Does fear make one to be drawn inward?	295
Article 2: Does fear make one deliberative?	296
Article 3: Is quivering an effect of fear?	297
Article 4: Does fear impede an operation?	298
 Question 45: Daring	 300
Article 1: Is daring contrary to fear?	300
Article 2: Does daring follow upon hope?	300
Article 3: Is some defect a cause of daring?	302
Article 4: Are those who are daring more eager at the beginning than in the midst of the dangers themselves?	303
 Question 46: Anger in Itself	 305
Article 1: Is anger a specific passion?	305
Article 2: Is the object of anger something bad?	306
Article 3: Does anger exist in the concupiscible part of the soul?	307
Article 4: Does anger involve an act of reason?	308
Article 5: Is anger more natural than concupiscence?	309
Article 6: Is anger more grave than hatred?	310
Article 7: Is anger directed only toward individuals with respect to whom there is justice? ..	312
Article 8: Does Damascene correctly enumerate the species of anger?	313
 Question 47: The Causes of Anger, and its Remedies	 315
Article 1: Is it always because of something done to himself that someone gets angry?	315
Article 2: Is disdain or contempt the only moving cause of anger?	316
Article 3: Is an individual's excellence a cause of his getting angry more easily?	317
Article 4: Is an individual's defectiveness a cause of his being such that we more easily get angry with him?	318
 Question 48: The Effects of Anger	 320
Article 1: Is anger a cause of pleasure?	320
Article 2: Is fervor an effect especially of anger?	321
Article 3: Does anger impede reason?	322
Article 4: Does anger cause speechlessness?	323

Question 49: The Substance of Habits	325
Article 1: Is a habit a quality?	325
Article 2: Is habit a determinate species of quality?	326
Article 3: Does habit imply an ordering toward an act?	329
Article 4: Is it necessary for there to be habits?	330
Question 50: The Subject of Habits	332
Article 1: Are there any habits in the body?	332
Article 2: Are habits in the soul with respect to its essence rather than with respect to its power?	333
Article 3: Can there be a habit in the powers of the sentient part of the soul?	334
Article 4: Are there any habits in the intellect?	336
Article 5: Are there any habits in the will?	337
Article 6: Are there habits in angels?	338
Question 51: The Causes of Habits	340
Article 1: Are there any habits from nature ?	340
Article 2: Can a habit be caused by an act?	342
Article 3: Can a habit be generated by just a single act?	343
Article 4: Are any habits infused into men by God?	344
Question 52: The Growth of Habits	345
Article 1: Can habits grow?	345
Article 2: Is the growth of a habit effected by addition?	347
Article 3: Does each act make a habit grow?	349
Question 53: The Corruption and Diminution of Habits	351
Article 1: Can a habit be corrupted?	351
Article 2: Can a habit be diminished?	352
Article 3: Is a habit corrupted or diminished just by a cessation from its acts?	354
Question 54: The Distinctions among Habits	356
Article 1: Can there be many habits in a single power?	356
Article 2: Are habits distinguished by their objects?	357
Article 3: Are habits distinguished by good and bad ?	358
Article 4: Is one habit constituted from many habits?	359
Question 55: The Essence of a Virtue	361
Article 1: Is a human virtue a habit?	361
Article 2: Is it part of the concept of a human virtue that it is a habit ordered toward operation?	362
Article 3: Is it part of the concept of a virtue that it is a good habit?	363
Article 4: Is the customary definition of virtue correct?	364
Question 56: The Subject of Virtue	367
Article 1: Does a virtue exist in a power of the soul as in its subject?	367
Article 2: Can a single virtue exist in two powers?	368
Article 3: Is the intellect the subject of any virtue?	368
Article 4: Can the irascible and concupiscible powers be the subject of any virtue?	370
Article 5: Can any virtue exist in the interior sentient apprehensive powers?	372
Article 6: Is the will the subject of any virtue?	373

Question 57: The Distinctions Among the Intellectual Virtues	374
Article 1: Are the speculative intellectual habits virtues?	374
Article 2: Is it appropriate to distinguish three speculative intellectual virtues, viz., wisdom, scientific knowledge, and understanding?	375
Article 3: Is an art or craft an intellectual virtue?	377
Article 4: Is prudence a virtue distinct from an art?	378
Article 5: Is prudence a virtue that is necessary for living well?	379
Article 6: Are good deliberation (eubulia), and two sorts of good judgment (synesis and gnome) appropriately joined to prudence?	381
 Question 58: The Distinction between the Moral Virtues and the Intellectual Virtues	 383
Article 1: Is every virtue a moral virtue?	383
Article 2: Is a moral virtue distinguished from an intellectual virtue?	384
Article 3: Is human virtue adequately divided into moral virtue and intellectual virtue ? ...	385
Article 4: Can moral virtue exist without intellectual virtue?	386
Article 5: Can intellectual virtue exist without moral virtue?	388
 Question 59: The Relation of the Moral Virtues to the Passions	 390
Article 1: Is a moral virtue a passion?	390
Article 2: Can moral virtue exist along with a passion?	391
Article 3: Can virtue exist along with sadness?	392
Article 4: Does every moral virtue have to do with the passions?	394
Article 5: Can a moral virtue exist without any passion?	394
 Question 60: The Distinctions among the Moral Virtues	 396
Article 1: Is there just a single moral virtue?	396
Article 2: Are moral virtues distinguished from one another by the fact that some have to do with actions or operations, while others have to do with the passions?	397
Article 3: Is there just a single moral virtue with respect to operations?	398
Article 4: Are there diverse moral virtues with respect to diverse passions?	399
Article 5: Are the moral virtues distinguished in a way that corresponds to the objects of the passions?	401
 Question 61: The Cardinal Virtues	 404
Article 1: Is it moral virtues that should be called cardinal, i.e., principal, virtues?	404
Article 2: Are there four cardinal virtues?	405
Article 3: Should any other virtues be called more principal than these?	406
Article 4: Are the four virtues under discussion diverse virtues and distinct from one another?	407
Article 5: Are the four virtues under discussion appropriately classified as exemplary virtues, virtues of a purified mind, purifying virtues, and political virtues?	408
 Question 62: The Theological Virtues	 411
Article 1: Are there any theological virtues?	411
Article 2: Are the theological virtues distinct from the moral and intellectual virtues?	412
Article 3: Is it appropriate to posit three theological virtues?	413
Article 4: Is the order of the theological virtues such that faith is prior to hope and hope is prior to charity?	414

Question 63: The Cause of Virtue	416
Article 1: Does virtue exist in us by nature?	416
Article 2: Can virtues be caused in us by the habituation of actions?	417
Article 3: Are there other virtues infused in us by God besides the theological virtues? ...	418
Article 4: Do the infused virtues differ in species from the acquired virtues?	419
Question 64: The Mean of the Virtues	421
Article 1: Do the moral virtues consist in a mean?	421
Article 2: Is the mean of a moral virtue a mean that belongs to the things or a mean of reason?	422
Article 3: Do the intellectual virtues consist in a mean?	423
Article 4: Does a theological virtue consist in a mean?	424
Question 64: The Connectedness of the Virtues	426
Article 1: Are the moral virtues necessarily connected with one another?	426
Article 2: Can the moral virtues exist without charity?	428
Article 3: Can charity be had without the other moral virtues?	429
Article 4: Do faith and hope ever exist without charity?	430
Article 5: Can charity exist without faith and hope?	431
Question 66: The Equality of the Virtues	433
Article 1: Can a virtue be greater or lesser?	433
Article 2: Are all the virtues in one and the same individual equally intense?	434
Article 3: Are the moral virtues preeminent over the intellectual virtues?	436
Article 4: Is justice the principal moral virtue?	437
Article 5: Is wisdom the greatest of the intellectual virtues?	438
Article 6: Is charity the greatest of the theological virtues?	440
Question 67: The Duration of the Virtues after this Life	442
Article 1: Do the moral virtues remain after this life?	442
Article 2: Do the intellectual virtues remain after this life?	443
Article 3: Does faith remain after this life?	444
Article 4: Does hope remain after death in the state of glory?	446
Article 5: Does anything of faith or hope remain in the state of glory?	447
Article 6: Does charity remain after this life in the state of glory?	449
Question 68: The Gifts of the Holy Spirit	450
Article 1: Do the gifts differ from the virtues?	450
Article 2: Are the gifts necessary for human salvation?	452
Article 3: Are the gifts of the Holy Spirit habits?	454
Article 4: Are the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit appropriately enumerated?	455
Article 5: Are the gifts of the Holy Spirit connected?	456
Article 6: Do the gifts of the Holy Spirit remain in heaven?	457
Article 7: Is the dignity of the gifts preserved by the way they are enumerated in Isaiah 2? ..	459
Article 8: Should the virtues take precedence over the gifts?	460

Question 69: The Beatitudes	462
Article 1: Do the beatitudes differ from the virtues and the gifts?	462
Article 2: Do the rewards attributed to the beatitudes belong to this life?	463
Article 3: Are the beatitudes appropriately enumerated?	464
Article 4: Are the rewards of the beatitudes appropriately enumerated?	467
Question 70: The Fruits of the Holy Spirit	469
Article 1: Are the fruits of the Holy Spirit named by the Apostle in Galatians 5 acts?	469
Article 2: Do the fruits of the Holy Spirit differ from the beatitudes?	470
Article 3: Did the Apostle correctly enumerate the fruits in Galatians 5?	471
Article 4: Are the fruits contrary to the works of the flesh enumerated by the Apostle?	473
Question 71: Vices and Sins in Themselves	475
Article 1: Is vice contrary to virtue?	475
Article 2: Are vices contrary to nature?	476
Article 3: Is a vice, i.e., a bad habit, worse than a sin, i.e., a bad act?	478
Article 4: Can a vicious act, i.e., a sin, exist together with a contrary virtue?	479
Article 5: Does every sin involve an act?	480
Article 6: Is it correct to define a sin as "a word or deed or desire contrary to the eternal law"?	481
Question 72: The Distinctions among Sins	484
Article 1: Do sins differ in species according to their objects?	484
Article 2: Is it appropriate to distinguish spiritual sins from carnal sins?	485
Article 3: Are sins distinguished in species according to their causes?	486
Article 4: Is it appropriate to divide sin into sins against God, sins against one's neighbor, and sins against oneself?	488
Article 5: Does the division of sins according to the degree of guilt—as, e.g., when sin is divided into mortal sin and venial sin—make for a diversity of species?	489
Article 6: Do sins of commission differ in species from sins of omission?	490
Article 7: Is it appropriate to divide sins into sins of the heart, sins of the mouth, and sinful deeds?	492
Article 8: Do excess and defect make for diverse species of sin?	493
Article 9: Are vices and sins diversified in species by diverse circumstances?	494
Question 73: The Relation of Sins to One Another	496
Article 1: Are all sins connected?	496
Article 2: Are all sins equal?	497
Article 3: Does the gravity of sins vary according to their objects?	499
Article 4: Does the gravity of sins differ according to the dignity of the virtues to which the sins are opposed, in the sense that a graver sin is opposed to a greater virtue?	500
Article 5: Are carnal sins lesser faults than spiritual sins?	501
Article 6: Does the gravity of a sin have to do with the cause of the sin?	502
Article 7: Do the circumstances aggravate a sin?	503
Article 8: Is a sin's gravity increased by its doing greater harm?	504
Article 9: Is a sin aggravated by the status of the person who is sinned against?	506
Article 10: Does the greatness of the person who commits a sin aggravate the sin?	507

Question 74: The Subject of Sins	509
Article 1: Can the will be the subject of sin?	509
Article 2: Is the will alone a subject of sin?	510
Article 3: Can sin exist in the sentient appetite?	511
Article 4: Can a mortal sin exist in the sentient appetite?	512
Article 5: Can sin exist in reason?	513
Article 6: Does the sin of lingering pleasure exist in reason?	514
Article 7: Does the sin of consenting to an act exist in higher reason?	514
Article 8: Is the act of consenting to the pleasure a mortal sin?	516
Article 9: Can there be a venial sin in higher reason insofar as it directs the lower powers? ..	518
Article 10: Can a venial sin exist in higher reason with respect to itself, i.e., insofar as it examines the eternal conceptions?	519
 Question 75: The Causes of Sin in General	 521
Article 1: Does sin have a cause?	521
Article 2: Does sin have an interior cause?	522
Article 3: Does sin have an exterior cause?	523
Article 4: Is sin a cause of sin?	524
 Question 76: Ignorance as a Cause of Sin	 526
Article 1: Can ignorance be a cause of sin?	526
Article 2: Is ignorance a sin?	527
Article 3: Does ignorance excuse one totally from sin?	528
Article 4: Does ignorance diminish a sin?	530
 Question 77: The Sentient Appetite as a Cause of Sin	 532
Article 1: Is the will moved by a passion of the sentient appetite?	532
Article 2: Can reason be overcome by a passion against its own knowledge?	533
Article 3: Should a sin of passion be called a sin of weakness?	535
Article 4: Is love of self a source of every sin?	536
Article 5: Are ‘concupiscence of the flesh’, ‘concupiscence of the eyes’, and ‘pride of life’ appropriately posited as causes of sins?	537
Article 6: Is a sin lessened by passion?	539
Article 7: Does passion totally excuse one from sin?	540
Article 8: Can a sin of passion be mortal?	541
 Question 78: Malice as a Cause of Sin	 543
Article 1: Does anyone sin purposefully or from fixed malice?	543
Article 2: Does everyone who sins from a habit sin from fixed malice?	544
Article 3: Does everyone who sins from fixed malice sin from a habit?	545
Article 4: Does one who sins from fixed malice sin more gravely than one who sins from passion?	547
 Question 79: God as a Cause of Sin	 549
Article 1: Is God a cause of sin?	549
Article 2: Is the act of sinning from God?	550
Article 3: Is God a cause of spiritual blindness and hardness of heart?	551
Article 4: Are spiritual blindness and hardness of heart always ordered toward the salvation of the one who is blinded or whose heart is hardened?	552

Question 80: The Devil as a Cause of Sin	554
Article 1: Is the devil a direct cause of a man's sinning?	554
Article 2: Can the devil induce a man to sin by instigating him interiorly?	555
Article 3: Can the devil impose a necessity for sinning?	556
Article 4: Do all of men's sins come at the devil's suggestion?	557
Question 81: Man as a Cause of Sin: The Transmission of Original Sin	559
Article 1: Is the first sin of the first parent transmitted to the others by way of origin?	559
Article 2: Are other sins of the first parent himself or of close ancestors likewise transmitted to their descendants?	561
Article 3: Does the sin of the first parent pass by way of origin to all men?	562
Article 4: Would someone who was miraculously formed out of human flesh contract original sin?	563
Article 5: If Adam had not sinned after Eve sinned, would their children have contracted original sin?	564
Question 82: The Essence of Original Sin	566
Article 1: Is original sin a habit?	566
Article 2: Are there many original sins in a single man?	567
Article 3: Is original sin concupiscence or disordered desire?	568
Article 4: Does original sin exist equally in everyone?	569
Question 83: The Subject of Original Sin	571
Article 1: Does original sin exist more in the flesh than in the soul?	571
Article 2: Does original sin exist in the soul's essence prior to existing in its powers?	572
Article 3: Does original sin infect the will prior to infecting the other powers?	573
Article 4: Are the powers mentioned in the introduction, [viz., the generative power, the concupiscible power, and the sense of touch], more infected than the other powers? 574
Question 84: One Sin as a Cause of Another Sin	576
Article 1: Is avid desire or covetousness the root of all sins?	576
Article 2: Is pride the beginning of every sin?	577
Article 3: Besides pride and avarice, are there any other sins that might be called capital sins?	578
Article 4: Should one claim that there are seven capital vices, viz., vainglory, envy, anger, sadness, avarice, gluttony, and lust?	579
Question 85: The Corruption of the Good of the Nature as an Effect of Sin	582
Article 1: Does sin diminish the good of the nature?	582
Article 2: Can the whole of the good of human nature be destroyed by sin?	583
Article 3: Is it appropriate to claim that there are wounds of the nature that follow from sin, viz., weakness, ignorance, malice, and concupiscence?	585
Article 4: Is the privation of mode, species, and order an effect of sin?	586
Article 5: Are death and other bodily defects the effects of sin?	587
Article 6: Are death and other bodily defects natural to man?	588
Question 86: The Stain of Sin as an Effect of Sin	590
Article 1: Does sin cause a stain in the soul?	590
Article 2: Does the stain remain in the soul after the sinful act?	591

Question 87: Being Deserving of Punishment as an Effect of Sin	592
Article 1: Is it an effect of sin to be deserving of punishment?	592
Article 2: Can a sin be the punishment for a sin?	593
Article 3: Does any sin make one deserving of an eternal punishment?	594
Article 4: Should the punishment for sin be infinite with respect to quantity?	595
Article 5: Does every sin make one deserving of an eternal punishment?	596
Article 6: Does one’s being deserving of punishment remain after the sin?	597
Article 7: Is every punishment because of some sin?	599
Article 8: Is anyone punished for someone else’s sin?	600
Question 88: Mortal Sin and Venial Sin	602
Article 1: Is it appropriate for venial sin to be divided off against mortal sin?	602
Article 2: Do venial sin and mortal sin differ in genus in the sense that some sins are mortal by their genus and some sins are venial by their genus?	603
Article 3: Is a venial sin a disposition toward a mortal sin?	605
Article 4: Can a venial sin become a mortal sin?	606
Article 5: Can some circumstance surrounding a venial sin make it a mortal sin?	607
Article 6: Can a mortal sin become a venial sin?	609
Question 89: Venial Sin in its own Right	611
Article 1: Does a venial sin cause a stain in the soul?	611
Article 2: Are venial sins appropriately designated as “wood, hay, and straw”?	612
Article 3: Was man in the state of innocence able to commit a venial sin?	613
Article 4: Can a good angel or bad angel commit a venial sin?	615
Article 5: Are the first movements of the sentient appetite in non-believers mortal sins? ...	616
Article 6: Can venial sin exist in someone who has original sin alone?	617
Question 90: The Essence of Law	619
Article 1: Is law something that belongs to reason?	619
Article 2: Is law always ordered toward the common good as its end?	620
Article 3: Whose reason is it that makes law?	621
Article 4: Is promulgation part of the nature of law?	622
Question 91: The Different Kinds of Law	624
Article 1: Is there such a thing as eternal law?	624
Article 2: Is there any such thing as natural law in us?	625
Article 3: Is there any such thing as human law?	626
Article 4: Was it necessary for there to be such a thing as divine law?	627
Article 5: Is there just a single divine law?	628
Article 6: Is there such a thing as a ‘law of the stimulant [to sin]’?	630
Question 92: The Effects of Law	632
Article 1: Is it the role of law to make men good?	632
Article 2: Are the acts of law correctly enumerated when one says that the acts of law are to command, to forbid, to permit, and to punish?	633

Question 93: The Eternal Law	635
Article 1: Is the eternal law the highest conception or plan existing in God?	635
Article 2: Is the eternal law known to everyone?	636
Article 3: Does every law stem from the eternal law?	637
Article 4: Are necessary and eternal things subject to the eternal law?	638
Article 5: Are natural contingent things subject to the eternal law?	639
Article 6: Are all human affairs subject to the eternal law?	641
Question 94: The Natural Law	643
Article 1: Is the natural law a habit?	643
Article 2: Does the natural law contain many precepts or just one precept?	644
Article 3: Do all the acts of the virtues belong to the law of nature?	645
Article 4: Is there a single law of nature for everyone?	646
Article 5: Can the law of nature be changed?	648
Article 6: Can the natural law be wiped out of a man's heart?	650
Question 95: Human Law	651
Article 1: Was it useful for laws to be made by men?	651
Article 2: Does every humanly made law stem from the natural law?	652
Article 3: Does Isidore appropriately describe the characteristics of positive law?	653
Article 4: Is Isidore's division of human laws appropriate?	655
Question 96: The Force of Human Law	657
Article 1: Should human law be made in a general way or for particular cases instead?	657
Article 2: Should human law suppress all vices?	658
Article 3: Does human law command the acts of all the virtues?	659
Article 4: Does human law impose an obligation in conscience on a man?	660
Article 5: Is everyone subject to human law?	661
Article 6: Is one who is subject to the law permitted to act outside the letter of the law? ...	663
Question 97: Changes in Human Law	665
Article 1: Should human law in any way be changed?	665
Article 2: Should human law always be changed when something better comes along?	666
Article 3: Can custom acquire the force of law or nullify a law?	667
Article 4: Can the rulers of the people give dispensations from human laws?	668
Question 98: The Old Law	670
Article 1: Was the Old Law good?	670
Article 2: Was the Old Law from God?	671
Article 3: Was the Old Law given through the mediation of angels or was it given directly by God?	673
Article 4: Was it fitting for the Old Law to have been given only to the Jewish people?	674
Article 5: Were all men obliged to observe the Old Law?	675
Article 6: Was it appropriate for the Old Law to have been given at the time of Moses? ...	677

Question 99: The Precepts of the Old Law	679
Article 1: Does the Old Law contain just one precept ?	679
Article 2: Does the Old Law contain moral precepts?	680
Article 3: Does the Old Law contain ceremonial precepts in addition to the moral precepts?	681
Article 4: Does the Old Law contain judicial precepts in addition to the moral and ceremonial precepts?	682
Article 5: Are there any precepts contained in the Old Law in addition to the moral, ceremonial, and judicial precepts?	683
Article 6: Was it right for the Old Law to have induced the observance of its precepts by temporal promises and threats?	685
Question 100: The Moral Precepts of the Old Law	687
Article 1: Do all the moral precepts of the Old Law belong to the law of nature?	687
Article 2: Do the moral precepts of the Law have to do with all the acts of the virtues?	688
Article 3: Are all the moral precepts of the Old Law traced back to the ten precepts of the Decalogue?	689
Article 4: Are the precepts of the Decalogue correctly distinguished from one another?	691
Article 5: Is there an appropriate number of precepts in the Decalogue?	692
Article 6: Are the precepts of the Decalogue correctly ordered?	695
Article 7: Are the precepts of the Decalogue set down in an appropriate way?	697
Article 8: Can dispensations be granted from the precepts of the Decalogue?	699
Article 9: Does the mode of virtue fall under a precept of the Law?	700
Article 10: Does the mode of charity fall under a precept of divine law?	702
Article 11: Is it correct to mark out moral precepts of the Law in addition to the Decalogue?	703
Article 12: Did the moral precepts of the Old Law give justification [before God]?	705
Question 101: The Ceremonial Precepts of the Old Law in Themselves	708
Article 1: Does the reason for the ceremonial precepts lie in their having to do with the worship of God?	708
Article 2: Are the ceremonial precepts figurative	709
Article 3: Was it right for there to be a multiplicity of ceremonial precepts?	711
Article 4: Are the ceremonies of the Old Law correctly divided into sacrifices, sacred things, sacraments, and observances?	712
Question 102: The Causes of the Ceremonial Precepts	715
Article 1: Are there reasons for the ceremonial precepts?	715
Article 2: Do the ceremonial precepts have literal reasons or only figurative reasons?	716
Article 3: Can appropriate reasons be assigned for the ceremonies that involve sacrifices? .	717
Article 4: Can appropriate reasons be assigned for the ceremonies that involve the sacred things?	723
Article 5: Can appropriate reasons be assigned for the sacraments of the Old Law?	731
Article 6: Are there reasoned causes for the ceremonial observances?	742

Question 103: The Duration of the Ceremonial Precepts	749
Article 1: Did the ceremonies of the Law exist before the Law existed?	749
Article 2: Did the ceremonies of the Old Law have the power to confer justification at the time of the Law?	750
Article 3: Did the ceremonies of the Old Law cease with the coming of Christ?	752
Article 4: Can the ceremonial precepts be observed without mortal sin after Christ's passion?	754
 Question 104: The Judicial Precepts of the Old Law	 757
Article 1: Does the nature of the judicial precepts consist in their directing a man in his relations with his neighbor?	757
Article 2: Are the judicial precepts figures of anything?	758
Article 3: Do the judicial precepts of the Old Law have perpetual binding force?	759
Article 4: Can the judicial precepts be divided into set kinds?	760
 Question 105: The Reasons for the Judicial Precepts	 762
Article 1: Did the Old Law give appropriate direction concerning the rulers?	762
Article 2: Were appropriate judicial precepts given with respect to the common life of the people?	764
Article 3: Were appropriate judicial precepts given with respect to outsiders?	772
Article 4: Did the Old Law issue appropriate precepts with respect to household members? ..	775
 Question 106: The Law of the Gospel, called the New Law, in Itself	 779
Article 1: Is the New Law a written law?	779
Article 2: Does the New Law confer justification?	780
Article 3: Should the New Law have been given from the beginning?	781
Article 4: Will the New Law last until the end of the world?	782
 Question 107: The Relation between the Old Law and the New Law	 785
Article 1: Is the New Law different from the Old Law?	785
Article 2: Does the New Law bring the Old Law to fulfillment?	787
Article 3: Is the New Law contained within the Old Law?	789
Article 4: Is the New Law more burdensome than the Old Law?	790
 Question 108: The Contents of the New Law	 793
Article 1: Should the New Law command or prohibit any exterior acts?	793
Article 2: Does the New Law give adequate direction to exterior acts?	794
Article 3: Does the New Law give man adequate direction with respect to interior acts? ...	797
Article 4: Is it appropriate for certain determinate counsels to be proposed in the New Law?	800

Question 109: The Necessity for Grace	802
Article 1: Can a man have cognition of any truth without grace?	802
Article 2: Is a man able to will and do good without grace?	803
Article 3: Can a man love God above all things by just his natural power and without grace?	805
Article 4: Can a man without grace fulfill the precepts of the Law by his own natural power?	806
Article 5: Can a man merit eternal life without grace?	807
Article 6: Can a man prepare himself for grace on his own without the exterior assistance of grace?	808
Article 7: Can a man rise up from sin without the assistance of grace?	809
Article 8: Is a man without grace able not to sin?	811
Article 9: Is someone who has already received grace able on his own to do good and avoid evil without any further assistance of grace?	812
Article 10: Does a man in the state of grace need the assistance of grace in order to persevere?	814
 Question 110: The Essence of God's Grace	 816
Article 1: Is grace an entity of some sort in the soul?	816
Article 2: Is grace a quality of the soul?	817
Article 3: Is grace the same as a virtue?	819
Article 4: Is it the essence of the soul that is the subject of grace?	820
 Question 111: The Divisions of Grace	 822
Article 1: Is grace appropriately divided into sanctifying grace and gratuitously given grace?	822
Article 2: Is grace appropriately divided into operating grace and cooperating grace?	823
Article 3: Is grace appropriately divided into prevenient grace and subsequent grace?	825
Article 4: Does the Apostle appropriately distinguish the kinds of gratuitously given grace?	826
Article 5: Is gratuitously given grace superior to sanctifying grace?	828
 Question 112: The Cause of Grace	 829
Article 1: Is God alone a cause of grace?	829
Article 2: Is any preparation or disposition for grace required on the part of a man?	830
Article 3: Must grace necessarily be given to someone who prepares himself for grace or who does what is within his power?	831
Article 4: Is grace greater in one man than in another?	832
Article 5: Can a man know that he has grace?	833

Question 113: The Effects of Grace	835
Article 1: Is the justification of a sinner the forgiveness of sins?	835
Article 2: Is an inpouring of grace required for that forgiveness of sin which is the justification of a sinner?	836
Article 3: Is a movement of free choice required for the justification of a sinner?	837
Article 4: Is a movement of faith required for the justification of a sinner?	838
Article 5: Is a movement of free choice with respect to sin required for the justification of a sinner?	840
Article 6: Should the forgiveness of sins be counted among the things required for the justification of a sinner?	841
Article 7: Does the justification of a sinner occur instantaneously or successively?.....	842
Article 8: Is the inpouring of grace first in the natural ordering of the things required for the justification of a sinner?.....	844
Article 9: Is the justification of a sinner God's greatest work?	845
Article 10: Is the justification of a sinner a miraculous work?.....	847
 Question 114: Merit	 849
Article 1: Can a man merit anything from God?	849
Article 2: Can someone merit eternal life without grace?	850
Article 3: Can a man who is in the state of grace merit eternal life by his own worthiness? .	851
Article 4: Is grace the principle of merit mainly through charity rather than through the other virtues?	852
Article 5: Can a man merit first grace for himself?	853
Article 6: Can one man merit first grace for another man?	854
Article 7: Can someone merit restoration for himself after a fall?.....	855
Article 8: Can a man merit an increase of grace or charity?	856
Article 9: Can someone merit [final] perseverance?	857
Article 10: Do temporal goods fall under merit?	858