MEMORANDUM

March 14, 2012

TO: Women's Basketball Student-Athletes with Remaining Eligibility.

FROM: LuAnn Humphrey
      Director of Enforcement, Basketball Staff.

SUBJECT: Information regarding the 2012 Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) draft, agents and tryouts.

We understand that you will attempt to gauge your readiness for competition at the next level through a variety of methods, including tryouts with professional teams, and you will undoubtedly rely on a number of individuals to assist in the decision-making process.

At the end of this process, you may, in fact, reach the conclusion that it is not in the best interest to pursue a professional career at this time, but rather to continue athletics participation at the intercollegiate level while pursuing your academic degree.

Six Points to Remember:

You will lose your eligibility IF:

1. You agree orally or in writing to be represented by an agent or any individual acting on behalf of the agent (e.g., runner).

2. You accept any benefits from an agent, a prospective agent or any individual acting on behalf of the agent (e.g., runner).

3. If you participate in a tryout with a WNBA team that lasts longer than 48 hours, which you have not personally financed.

4. If you tryout with a professional team during the academic year and miss class.

5. If you enter the draft AND do not take the appropriate steps to withdraw and declare your intention to resume intercollegiate participation.

6. If you enter the draft AND are drafted by a professional team.
Key Dates:

NCAA Women's Final Four (Denver): April 1 and 3, 2012.

Frequently Asked Questions:

1. Who is eligible for the WNBA Draft?

   Per WNBA eligibility requirements the following individuals are eligible:

   a. An individual who will be at least 22 years old during the calendar year in which such a draft is held and she either has no remaining intercollegiate eligibility or renounces her remaining intercollegiate eligibility by written notice to the WNBA at least 10 days prior to such a draft;

   b. An individual who has graduated from a four-year college or university prior to such a draft, or "is to graduate" from such a college or university within the three-month period following such a draft and she either has no remaining intercollegiate eligibility or renounces her remaining intercollegiate eligibility by written notice to the WNBA at least 10 days prior to such a draft; or

   c. An individual that has attended a four-year college or university, her original class in such a college or university has already been graduated or "is to graduate" within the three-month period following such a draft and she either has no remaining intercollegiate eligibility or renounces her remaining intercollegiate eligibility by written notice to the WNBA at least 10 days prior to such draft.

2. Can my college coach assist with the logistical issues associated with an on- or off-campus workout/tryout (e.g., arranging and scheduling of a professional team workout/tryout) during the academic year?

   Yes. It would be permissible for a student-athlete's institutional head coach to assist in the logistical arrangements for a student-athlete to engage in a professional tryout that occurs on or off campus; however, it would not be permissible for a coach to assist in conducting or be present at such workouts/tryouts.

3. Can professional teams pay for my private workouts/tryouts?

   Yes. You may tryout with a professional team if you are enrolled full time as long as you do not miss class. You may receive actual and necessary expenses from the professional team in conjunction with one 48-hour tryout per team. The 48-hour tryout period begins when you arrive at the tryout location. At the completion of the 48-hour period you must depart the location of the tryout immediately in order to receive transportation expenses.
4. Can any other individual (e.g., agent, runner or "advisor") pay for my private workouts/tryouts with professional teams?

No. Unless a professional team pays for your expenses in conjunction with a private workout or tryout, you and your family are responsible for paying all expenses associated with any tryouts as they are incurred.

5. Can I pay for my own private workouts/tryouts with professional teams?

Yes. A tryout may extend beyond 48 hours if the individual self-finances additional expenses, including return transportation. A self-financed tryout may be for any length of time, provided you don't miss class.

6. What is an "agent" according to NCAA rules?

An agent is any individual who, directly or indirectly: (Adopted: 1/14/12)

(a) Represents or attempts to represent an individual for the purpose of marketing his or her athletics ability or reputation for financial gain; or

(b) Seeks to obtain any type of financial gain or benefit from securing a prospective student-athlete's enrollment at an educational institution or from a student-athlete's potential earnings as a professional athlete.

7. Am I allowed to have any type of agreement with an agent?

No. You are not permitted to have a written or oral agreement with an agent or anyone who is employed by or acting on behalf of an agent or sports agency (i.e., "runner") while enrolled at a collegiate institution. Once you have exhausted your collegiate eligibility, you are permitted to have an agreement with an agent.

8. What is an "oral agreement" with an agent?

An oral agreement occurs if you verbally agree to have an agent perform any services (e.g., providing any expenses related to tryouts, arranging disability insurance, etc.) on your behalf OR you have knowledge that an agent is performing such services.

9. Is an agent allowed to contact teams on my behalf to arrange private workouts or tryouts?

No. You cannot have an agent arrange a private workout/tryout with any professional or WNBA team.
10. Can my family members or other individuals who are associated with me as a result of playing basketball (e.g., high school coach, summer basketball coach, etc.) have an agreement with an agent to perform services on my behalf?

No. Family members and other individuals are not permitted to enter into any agreements with an agent on your behalf.

11. Am I allowed to have an agreement with an agent if it is for future representation?

No. You are not permitted to agree to a future representation agreement with an agent.

12. Is an agent allowed to provide me any benefits?

No. You, your family or your friends are not permitted to receive any benefits from an agent. Examples of material benefits include money, transportation, dinner, clothes, cell phones, jewelry, etc. However, benefits may also include, but are not limited to, activities such as tryout arrangements with a professional team and coordinating tryout schedules.

13. Am I permitted to have an advisor during this process?

Yes, provided the advisor does not market you to WNBA teams. However, it is not permissible for the advisor to contact teams on your behalf to arrange private workouts or tryouts. [Note: If you receive assistance from an advisor, you must compensate the advisor in an amount equal to the value of the services he or she provides you; furthermore, you may not receive such services at a free or reduced rate without jeopardizing your eligibility, regardless of whether the advisor does not typically charge clients for such services.]

14. Can an institution cancel my athletics scholarship if I have an agreement with an agent?

Yes. An institution is permitted to rescind your athletics scholarship if you have an agreement with an agent.

Helpful Tips:

- You should keep your head coach and compliance coordinator informed of all activities during this process.

- Be careful who you associate with during this process. Do it all yourself or work through your head coach. You may receive the assistance of your family members, provided they are not working with any individual who is marketing your athletic ability (e.g., contacting professional teams, setting up tryouts with professional teams).

- If you do not have knowledge of who arranged your tryout, you have a responsibility to find out who did.
