When the most prudent Virgin, who brought holy joys into the world, rose above all the spheres and melted the stars beneath her shining feet with gleaming, radiant light, she was surrounded by the ninefold Ranks and received by the thrice three Hierarchies.

She, the friend of suppliants, stood before the face of the supreme God.

and you holy armies and you powers and dominions of heaven, and you flaming Cherubim, and you Seraphim created from the Word—say whether such a feeling of joy has ever overwhelmed you as when you saw the assembly of the Mother of the Thunderer.

She is the queen, powerful in heaven and on land and at sea, whose divinity every spirit

for the sacred Empire and for Maximilian, the Emperor.

May the all-powerful Virgin grant that he shall conquer his wicked enemies and restore peace to the nations and safety to the lands.

For you, [O Virgin,] this motet is

Isaac - Virgo prudentissima faithfully presented by Georgius, the Emperor’s cantor and chaepel master and prelate of the region of Austria, who, diligent in all things.
earnestly commends himself to your sweet joys, Mother.
