

The Asian Indian Classical Music Society
52318 N Tally Ho Drive, South Bend, IN 46635

Concert Announcement

Esha Bandyopadhyay (Vocal)

Esha Bandyopadhyay, an accomplished classical vocalist based in Kolkata, was initially trained by her mother, Maitreyi Bandopadhyay, and later by the well-known vocalist Krishna Dasgupta, a disciple of Tarapada Chakravarty and Amir Khan. She has performed in many music festivals in India, and has been performing regularly in Canada, the US, and Europe since 1999. She has founded an academy of music and art in Kolkata. For more information, visit: www.eshavocal.com

Partha Bose (Sitar)

Partha Bose is a widely-acclaimed sitar player from Kolkata. He received his training from Pandit Manoj Shankar of the Maihar Gharana. He has performed in many prestigious music festivals in India, including the Dover Lane Music Conference, and has performed regularly in North America and Europe at concerts and music festivals. He was selected by the Government of India to lead a cultural delegation to African countries during the 50th anniversary celebrations of India's independence. For more information visit: www.thesitarist.com

Accompanied by:

Gaurishankar (Tabla)

November 9, 2008, Sunday, 7.00PM

At: the Hesburgh Center for International and Peace Studies Auditorium,
University of Notre Dame

Tickets available at gate.

General Admission: $10, AICMS Members and ND/SMC faculty: $5, Students: FREE

For further information, contact: Amitava Dutt (2730928) or Umesh Garg (2722957)