

Summa Theologiae

Table of Contents: Part 3

| | |
|--|----|
| PROLOGUE TO PART 3 | 1 |
| Question 1: The Fittingness of the Incarnation | 1 |
| Article 1: Was it fitting for God to be incarnated? | 1 |
| Article 2: Was the Word of God's being incarnated necessary for the restoration of the human race? | 3 |
| Article 3: If man had not sinned, would God still have been incarnated? | 5 |
| Article 4: Was God incarnated more principally as a remedy for actual sin than as a remedy for Original Sin? | 7 |
| Article 5: Would it have been more fitting for God to be incarnated from the beginning of the human race? | 8 |
| Article 6: Should the work of the Incarnation have been deferred until the end of the world? | 10 |
| Question 2: The Mode of Union of the Incarnate Word as regards the Union Itself | 12 |
| Article 1: Was the union of the Word Incarnate effected in one nature? | 12 |
| Article 2: Was the union of the Word Incarnate effected in a person? | 14 |
| Article 3: Was the union of the Incarnate Word effected in a suppositum or hypostasis ? | 16 |
| Article 4: Is the person of Christ composite? | 18 |
| Article 5: Was there a union of soul and body in Christ? | 18 |
| Article 6: Was the human nature united to the Word of God accidentally? | 20 |
| Article 7: Is the union of the divine and human natures itself something created? | 22 |
| Article 8: Is union the same as the assumption? | 23 |
| Article 9: Is the union of the two natures the greatest of unions? | 25 |
| Article 10: Is the union of the Incarnation effected through grace? | 26 |
| Article 11: Did the union of the Incarnation follow upon any merits? | 27 |
| Article 12: Was the grace of union natural to the man Christ? | 28 |
| Question 3: The Union on the Part of the Assuming Person | 30 |
| Article 1: Is it fitting for a divine person to assume a created nature? | 30 |
| Article 2: Is it fitting for the divine nature to assume? | 31 |
| Article 3: If personhood is intellectually removed, can the nature still assume? | 32 |
| Article 4: Is it possible for one person to assume a created nature without another person assuming it? | 33 |
| Article 5: Could one of the other divine persons, besides the person of the Son, have assumed a human nature? | 34 |
| Article 6: Can two divine persons assume numerically one and the same nature? | 35 |
| Article 7: Can one divine person assume two human natures? | 36 |
| Article 8: Was it more fitting for the Son of God to be incarnated than for the Father or the Holy Spirit to be incarnated? | 38 |
| Question 4: The Union on the Part of What is Assumed | 40 |
| Article 1: Was human nature more assumable by the Son of God than any other nature? | 40 |
| Article 2: Did the Son of God assume a person? | 41 |
| Article 3: Did the divine person assume a man? | 42 |
| Article 4: Should the Son of God have assumed human nature as separated from all its individuals? | 43 |

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Article 5: Should the Son of God have assumed human nature in all its individuals? | 44 |
| Article 6: Was it fitting for the Son of God to assume a human nature from the lineage of Adam? | 45 |
| Question 5: The Assumption of the Parts of the Human Nature | 47 |
| Article 1: Did the Son of God assume a real body? | 47 |
| Article 2: Did Christ have a carnal, i.e., earthly, body or a celestial body? | 48 |
| Article 3: Did the Son of God assume a soul? | 49 |
| Article 4: Did the Son of God assume a human mind, i.e., a human intellect? | 51 |
| Question 6: The Ordering of the Assumption | 53 |
| Article 1: Did the Son of God assume the flesh by the mediation of the soul? | 53 |
| Article 2: Did the Son of God assume the soul by the mediation of the spirit? | 54 |
| Article 3: Was the soul of Christ assumed by the Word before the flesh? | 55 |
| Article 4: Was the flesh of Christ first assumed by the Word before being united to the soul? | 56 |
| Article 5: Did the Son of God assume the whole human nature by the mediation of its parts? | 57 |
| Article 6: Did the Son of God assume the human nature by the mediation of grace? | 58 |
| Question 7: The Grace of Christ insofar as He is an Individual Man | 60 |
| Article 1: Was there habitual grace in the soul assumed by the Word? | 60 |
| Article 2: Did Christ have virtues? | 61 |
| Article 3: Did Christ have faith? | 62 |
| Article 4: Did Christ have hope? | 63 |
| Article 5: Did Christ have the gifts [of the Holy Spirit]? | 64 |
| Article 6: Did Christ have the gift of fear? | 65 |
| Article 7: Did Christ have gratuitously given graces? | 66 |
| Article 8: Did Christ have [the grace of] prophecy? | 67 |
| Article 9: Did Christ have the fullness of grace? | 68 |
| Article 10: Is the fullness of grace peculiar to Christ? | 69 |
| Article 11: Is Christ's grace infinite? | 70 |
| Article 12: Was Christ's grace able to be increased? | 72 |
| Article 13: Did Christ's habitual grace follow upon the union | 73 |
| Question 8: The Grace of Christ insofar as He is the Head of the Church | 75 |
| Article 1: Does it belong to Christ, insofar as He is a man, to be the head of the Church? . . . | 75 |
| Article 2: Is Christ the head of men with respect to their bodies? | 76 |
| Article 3: Is Christ the head of all men? | 77 |
| Article 4: Is Christ the head of the angels insofar as He is a man? | 78 |
| Article 5: Is the grace by which Christ is the head of the Church the same as the singular grace that belongs to this man [Christ]? | 79 |
| Article 6: Is being the head of the Church peculiar to Christ? | 81 |
| Article 7: Is the devil the head of those who are evil? | 82 |
| Article 8: Is the Antichrist the head of those who are evil? | 83 |
| Question 9: Christ's Knowledge in General | 85 |
| Article 1: Was there in Christ any knowledge besides the knowledge He had as God? | 85 |
| Article 2: Did Christ have the knowledge had by the blessed in heaven, i.e., the comprehenders [of God's essence]? | 86 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Article 3: Is there any other sort of infused knowledge in Christ besides beatific knowledge? | 87 |
| Article 4: Did Christ have any acquired experiential knowledge? | 89 |
| Question 10: The Beatific Knowledge that Belongs to Christ's Soul | 91 |
| Article 1: Did Christ's soul comprehend, or does it comprehend, the Word, i.e., the divine essence? | 91 |
| Article 2: Does Christ's soul have cognition of all things in the Word? | 92 |
| Article 3: Can Christ's soul have cognition of infinitely many things in the Word? | 94 |
| Article 4: Does Christ's soul see the Word more perfectly than any other creature? | 96 |
| Question 11: The Knowledge Infixd in, i.e., Infused into, Christ's Soul | 97 |
| Article 1: Did Christ have cognition of all things by His infused knowledge? | 97 |
| Article 2: Was Christ's soul able to have understanding through His infused knowledge without turning itself toward phantasms? | 98 |
| Article 3: Did Christ's soul have infused knowledge by way of comparison? | 99 |
| Article 4: Was the infused knowledge in Christ lesser than in the angels? | 100 |
| Article 5: Was there habitual knowledge in Christ? | 101 |
| Article 6: Was there more than one habit of knowledge in Christ's soul? | 102 |
| Question 12: The Acquired or Experiential Knowledge that Belongs to Christ's Soul | 104 |
| Article 1: Did Christ have cognition of all things by His acquired or experiential knowledge? | 104 |
| Article 2: Did Christ make progress in His acquired knowledge? | 105 |
| Article 3: Did Christ learn anything from men? | 106 |
| Article 4: Did Christ receive knowledge from angels? | 107 |
| Question 13: The Power belonging to Christ's Soul | 109 |
| Article 1: Did Christ's soul have omnipotence? | 109 |
| Article 2: Does Christ's soul have omnipotence with respect to making changes in creatures? | 110 |
| Article 3: Did Christ's soul have omnipotence with respect to its own body? | 112 |
| Article 4: Did Christ's soul have omnipotence with respect to the execution of its own will? | 113 |
| Question 14: The Bodily Weaknesses that Christ Took On in His Human Nature | 115 |
| Article 1: Was it fitting for the Son of God to assume a human nature with bodily weaknesses? | 115 |
| Article 2: Was Christ subject to bodily weaknesses by necessity? | 117 |
| Article 3: Did Christ contract His bodily weaknesses? | 118 |
| Article 4: Did Christ have to take on all the bodily weaknesses of men? | 119 |
| Question 15: The Weaknesses Belonging to His Soul that Christ Took On in His Human Nature | 121 |
| Article 1: Did sin exist in Christ? | 121 |
| Article 2: Did the stimulant to sin (fomes peccati) exist in Christ? | 122 |
| Article 3: Did ignorance exist in Christ? | 123 |
| Article 4: Was Christ's soul passible? | 125 |
| Article 5: Did real sensible pain exist in Christ? | 126 |
| Article 6: Did sadness exist in Christ? | 127 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Article 7: Did fear exist in Christ? | 128 |
| Article 8: Did wonder or amazement exist in Christ? | 129 |
| Article 9: Did anger exist in Christ? | 130 |
| Article 10: Was Christ simultaneously a wayfarer and a comprehender [of God's essence]? | 131 |
| Question 16: What Belongs to Christ with respect to His Esse and Coming-to-exist | 133 |
| Article 1: Is God is a man true? | 133 |
| Article 2: Is A man is God true? | 135 |
| Article 3: Can Christ be called a Lord-like man? | 136 |
| Article 4: Can the things that belong to the human nature be said of God? | 137 |
| Article 5: Can the things that belong to the human nature be said of the divine nature? | 138 |
| Article 6: Is God was made a man true? | 139 |
| Article 7: Is A man was made God true? | 140 |
| Article 8: Is Christ is a creature true? | 142 |
| Article 9: Did this man, pointing to Christ, begin to exist? | 143 |
| Article 10: Is this true: Christ as a man is a creature (or: began to exist)? | 144 |
| Article 11: Is Christ as a man God? | 145 |
| Article 12: Is Christ as a man a hypostasis (or: a person)? | 146 |
| Question 17: Christ's Oneness With Respect To Esse | 148 |
| Article 1: Is Christ one thing or two things? | 148 |
| Article 2: Is there just one esse in Christ, or two? | 151 |
| Question 18: Christ's Oneness with respect to Willing | 153 |
| Article 1: Were there two wills in Christ, one divine and the other human? | 153 |
| Article 2: Was there in Christ a will of sensuality in addition to a will of reason? | 155 |
| Article 3: Were there in Christ two wills on the part of reason? | 156 |
| Article 4: Did free will exist in Christ? | 157 |
| Article 5: Did the human will in Christ will anything other than what God wills? | 158 |
| Article 6: Was there contrariety among the wills in Christ? | 159 |
| Question 19: Christ's Oneness with respect to Operation | 161 |
| Article 1: Is there just one operation in Christ belonging to the divine and human natures? | 161 |
| Article 2: Is there more than one human operation in Christ? | 164 |
| Article 3: Was Christ's human action able to be meritorious for Him? | 165 |
| Article 4: Was Christ able to merit for others? | 167 |
| Question 20: Christ's Subjection to the Father | 168 |
| Article 1: Should it be said that Christ is subject to the Father? | 168 |
| Article 2: Is Christ subject to His very self? | 170 |
| Question 21: Christ's Prayer | 172 |
| Article 1: Is it fitting for Christ to pray? | 172 |
| Article 2: Is it appropriate for Christ to pray with His sentient appetite? | 173 |
| Article 3: Was it fitting for Christ to pray for Himself? | 174 |
| Article 4: Was Christ's prayer always heard? | 175 |

| | |
|--|---------|
| Question 22: Christ's Priesthood | 178 |
| Article 1: Is it fitting for Christ to be a priest? | 178 |
| Article 2: Was Christ Himself simultaneously priest and victim? | 179 |
| Article 3: Is the effect of Christ's priesthood the expiation of sins? | 180 |
| Article 4: Did the effect of Christ's priesthood pertain only to others or to Himself as well? | 182 |
| Article 5: Does Christ's priesthood last forever? | 183 |
| Article 6: Was Christ's priesthood according to the order of Melchisedech? | 184 |
| Question 23: Whether or not Adoption belongs to Christ | 186 |
| Article 1: Is it fitting for God to adopt children? | 186 |
| Article 2: Is it fitting for the whole Trinity to adopt? | 187 |
| Article 3: Is it peculiar to the rational creature to be adopted? | 188 |
| Article 4: Is Christ as a man an adopted son of God? | 189 |
| Question 24: Christ's Predestination | 191 |
| Article 1: Is it fitting for Christ to have been predestined? | 191 |
| Article 2: Is Christ as a man was predestined to be the Son of God true? | 192 |
| Article 3: Is Christ's predestination an exemplar of our predestination? | 194 |
| Article 4: Is Christ's predestination a cause of our predestination? | 195 |
| Question 25: Adoring Christ. | 196 |
| Article 1: Are the human nature of Christ and His divine nature to be adored with the same adoration? | 196 |
| Article 2: Is Christ's human nature to be adored with the adoration of worship? | 197 |
| Article 3: Should an image of Christ be adored with the adoration of worship? | 199 |
| Article 4: Should the cross of Christ be adored with the adoration of worship? | 200 |
| Article 5: Is the mother of God to be adored with the adoration of worship? | 202 |
| Article 6: Are the relics of the saints to be adored in any way? | 202 |
| Question 26: On Christ's being Called the Mediator between God and Men | 204 |
| Article 1: Is it peculiar to Christ to be a mediator between God and men? | 204 |
| Article 2: Is Christ the mediator between God and men as a man? | 205 |
| Question 27: The Sanctification of the Blessed Virgin. | 207 |
| Article 1: Was the Blessed Virgin sanctified before her birth from the womb? | 207 |
| Article 2: Was the Blessed Virgin sanctified before her ensoulment? | 208 |
| Article 3: Was the Blessed Virgin cleansed of the infection of the stimulant [to sin]? | 210 |
| Article 4: Was the Blessed Virgin preserved from every actual sin by her sanctification in the womb? | 212 |
| Article 5: Did the Blessed Virgin, by her sanctification in the womb, obtain the fullness or perfection of grace? | 214 |
| Article 6: Outside of Christ, was being sanctified in the womb peculiar to the Blessed Virgin? | 215 |
| Question 28: The Virginitly of the Mother of God | 218 |
| Article 1: Was the Mother of God a virgin in conceiving Christ? | 218 |
| Article 2: Was the mother of Christ a virgin in giving birth? | 220 |
| Article 3: Did the mother of Christ remain a virgin after His birth? | 222 |
| Article 4: Did the Mother of God take a vow of virginitly? | 224 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Question 29: The Espousal of the Mother of God | 226 |
| Article 1: Was it fitting for Christ to be born of an espoused virgin? | 226 |
| Article 2: Was there a genuine marriage between Mary and Joseph? | 228 |
| Question 30: The Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin | 231 |
| Article 1: Was it necessary for what was going to be brought about in the Blessed Virgin to be announced to her? | 231 |
| Article 2: Was it fitting for the annunciation to be made to the Blessed Virgin by an angel? | 232 |
| Article 3: Was it fitting for the announcing angel to appear to the virgin by a bodily vision? | 233 |
| Article 4: Was the Annunciation carried out in the right order? | 235 |