

Where to find USFP/International Security talks at Notre Dame
Dan Lindley
February 20, 2021 v. 1.1a

There are many centers, institutes, colleges, programs, etc. that host academic seminar related to our classes (Lindley + you).

Here are some places that regularly sponsor relevant talks. Note that NOT all talks sponsored by these places are relevant to our courses, so check with me if there is an ambiguous topic/speaker. You will have to click around at these sites to find where the seminars are listed. In rough order of relevant talks:

1. ND Intl Security Center: <https://ndisc.nd.edu/> (My shop)
2. Keough School: <https://keough.nd.edu/>
3. Kroc Inst for Peace Studies: <https://kroc.nd.edu/>
4. Kellogg Inst for Intl Studies: <https://kellogg.nd.edu/>
5. Liu Inst for Asian Studies: <https://asia.nd.edu/>
6. Nanovic Inst for European Studies: <https://nanovic.nd.edu/>
7. Reilly Center for Science, Technology, and Values <https://reilly.nd.edu/>

And More! Including departmental talks, such as you may find in History, Physics, Economics, Biology, and beyond....

And there are some great student groups that hold debates and talks (debates count for a talk in my classes). Your NDISC and POLS profs will hopefully announce some of these:

1. Women in International Security, Notre Dame:
<https://ndisc.nd.edu/about/women-in-international-security/>
2. John Quincy Adams Society, Notre Dame
3. Alexander Hamilton Society, Notre Dame: <https://www.facebook.com/AHSatND/>
