Special Thanks:

We are happy to welcome to tonight's concert many special guests of the University who are on campus this weekend to be honored for their support of financial aid. The Glee Club and its members would like to extend their gratitude to these individuals for their generosity in making a Notre Dame education a reality for so many students.

Prayers of Mary

Regina caeli

chant

Regina caeli

Anonymous (c.1540)

Rejoice, Queen of heaven, alleluia; for He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia; has risen as He said, alleluia. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

O gloriosa virgo

Giovanni Gabrieli (1565-1613)

O glorious virgin, defend our salvation; O mother of grace, make Him propitious to us; we humbly pray, O blessed virgin. I pray, sweet virgin, by your prayers and your good deeds keep from us the offense of our sin; we humbly, pray, O blessed virgin, O sweet virgin. O glorious virgin, help us, defend us, protect us..

Laudes de Saint Antoine de Padoue

Francis Poulenc (1899-1963)

O Jesu

O Jesus, everlasting Light, so often in Anthony you showed your splendor through miracles, of whom a fitting praise from us, give honor to you: through him, by your grace, grant that we might carry our oil in our own vessel; by our burning torches may religion give light, and charity, beat, until the Father grants us in his house the enjoyment of our reward after our earthly labors

O proles

O offspring of Spain, terror of unbelievers, new light of Italy, noble treasure of the city of Padua! O Anthony, carry out the defense of the grace of Christ: lest the brief time of favor entrusted to the backslidden pass away in vain.

Laus Regi

Joyful praise to the King, who, being the reward of those who struggle, gives himself to Anthony as his soldier's pay. O Anthony, most excellent man, who received a pledge of your glory, which you foreknew, even in this life, seeing Christ, the honor of whose glory you preached in Padua, which remains a spur to so many gifts of grace in you. Through you, O Father, with the Son and the Spirit, the Comforter, may he cleanse us thoroughly from the plague of sin. Amen.

Si quaeris

If you seek miracles--death, error, disaster, demons, and leprosy flee; the sick rise up healed. The sea and chains give way; young and old ask and receive limbs and lost possessions; Dangers perish and necessity ceases. Let those who see these things tell of them: Let the Paduans speak of them. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Pray for us, blessed Anthony. Amen.

(Translation: Thomas Williams)

Lieder of Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

Trinklied aus dem 16. Jahrhundert

16th-Century Drinking Song

The nun eats, the cleric eats, no one is late for the table. He drinks, she drinks, the maid drinks with the butler, the abbot drinks with the prior, the cook drinks with the factotum; one for the king, one for the pope, they drink wine without water; one for the pope, one for the king, they drink without measure; they drink one, they drink two, until the bottom is dry.

Sehnsucht

Longing

Only he who knows longing, knows what I suffer! Alone and cut off from all joy, I gaze at the heavens toward the world to come. Ah, he who loves and knows me is far away. My brain reels, there is a burning within me. (Goethe)

Zum Rundetanz

Arise! Night falls, silver shines the moon in the treetops. Arise and join the joyous round dance! At this hour dusk comes, cloudless and beautiful. Leap quickly around the linden tree, which showers us with yellow blossoms. Let us sing joyous songs, slinging ourselves in chains where one trusts in held hands. Thus do we sweep through life, as lightly as rose petals. Darkness makes the youth more anxious, so he holds more tightly to his beloved.

Die Nacht

The Night

How beautiful you are, friendly stillness, heavenly rest! Look how the bright stars wander in heaven's meadows and gaze down on us here below, silently from the blue distance. How beautiful you are, friendly stillness, heavenly rest! The mildness of spring silently approaches the earth's tender breast, crowning the silver brook with moss and the fields with flowers.

Folk Songs

Rayando el sol (Mexico)

Manuel M. Ponce (1882-1948)

The sun shining, I said goodbye, in the breeze, where I met you; arriving at the bridge, and then returning bathed in tears, those I shed for you. What lovely eyes that woman has, such beautiful ways of love, that she robbed me of pleasure; alas, a forlorn hope that I stop loving her.

Ramkali (Indian Raga)

Arr. Ethan Sperry

I am entirely devoted to you my lord. At least heed my plea, my love. I hope to be united with you, my love. Peace of mind is not mine, my love.

Ave Maria (Angelus Domini)

Franz Biebl (1906-2001)

Barry Champion and Alex Eide, solos; John Kemnetz, conductor

The angel of the Lord appeared to Mary and she conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you, blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Mary said: "Behold, the maidservant of the Lord, let it be done to me according to your word." Hail Mary...And the Word was made flesh, and lived among us. Hail Mary... Holy Mary, Mother of God, intercede for us now and in the moment of our death. Amen.
