A charge $q$ is located at point $(a, b, 0)$ in a Cartesian coordinate system. The plane surfaces $x = 0$ and $y = 0$ are both grounded.

1. Determine the potential $\Phi(x, y, z)$ in the quadrant containing the charge.
2. Determine the $x$ and $y$ components of the force on the charge.