Library Stacks Scavenger Hunt!

Complete this form (correctly) to familiarize yourself with the Stacks and earn a raffle ticket for one of five Hammes Bookstore gift certificates (one $75 grand prize; four $25 prizes). Go down to the Stacks (via Stair 5 to the right of the Circulation Desk) and use the map on the back of this sheet to answer the following questions. Please note that access to the Stacks is limited from 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM on Monday – Friday (outside of these hours a Circulation Attendant will retrieve the books you need). Your entry must be submitted by April 3, 2009.

Occasionally the doors to the utility or construction areas may be open. Please do not enter these spaces.

1. The bookshelves near the Circulation Desk contain several sets of frequently consulted codes. Which code is located on the bookshelf near the stairway leading to the Stacks (Stair 5) ?

2. As you enter the Stacks, the Law Reviews are on the rows of compact shelving to your right. Which row contains Notre Dame Law Review ?

3. As you proceed North towards the old building, the books that used to be located in Stacks 1-3 are to your left and right. Which row contains the call number range KF 1648.R68 – KF 1819.A2 ?

4. Use the map to locate “Stacks Core” (materials formerly located in the East and West reading rooms). State codes are in Rows 7 - 14. Which row includes Michie’s Nevada Revised Statutes, Annotated ?

5. The reference books that used to be located in the West reading room are located in the first two rows of compact shelving. Find the looseleaf (fancy way of saying “binder”) series in Row 2 with the call number KF 385.M5. What is the name of this series (Bluebook form NOT required) ?

6. Use the computer to access the library catalog. What is the physical location of Jane F. Gardner’s Women in Roman Law and Society (e.g. Stacks, Reserve, etc.) ?

   …of Bruce W. Dearstyne’s Railroads and Railroad Regulations in New York State, 1900-1913 ?

To obtain books from the first two locations, ask a Circulation Desk attendant for assistance. Books stored in the third location are unavailable until 2010, but can requested through interlibrary loan (ILL). For assistance with ILL, see Carmela Kinslow in the office suite just inside the stairway next to the Reserve Collection.

7. Fill out your name and email address in the space provided and place this form in the BIG BOX near Beth Klein’s desk (in Suite 1110 just off the main entrance of Eck Hall). Then take a ticket from the bowl, print your name on the back and deposit it in the small ticket box. On your way there, stop by the Research Librarians’ offices and say “hi” ! Be sure and come back when you need assistance with your research (or just want to chat).
