

The Human Person
and a Culture of Freedom

Edited by Peter A. Pagan Aguiar and Terese Auer, O.P.

Forward by Alice Ramos
With an introduction by
Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.

AMERICAN MARITAIN ASSOCIATION
Distributed by The Catholic University of America Press
Washington, DC 20064

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am delighted to take this opportunity to thank the many persons, including the various authors represented within these pages, who contributed in one way or another to the completion of this long-awaited volume. I am especially indebted to Sr. Terese Auer, O.P., who gave generously of her time, and without whose professional collaboration the publication of this collection would have been delayed considerably longer. I must also express my sincere gratitude to Mother Ann Marie Karlovic, O.P., for permitting Sr. Terese to serve as the volume's coeditor. I thank the Dominican Sisters of the Congregation of St. Cecilia and Aquinas College for their spiritual and material support of my ongoing professional involvement in the American Maritain Association's scholarly activities. I am deeply grateful to the Vice President of the American Maritain Association, Dr. Gavin Colvert, for his valuable technical assistance in producing both the volume's index and the camera-ready version of the manuscript. I thank Sr. Mary Angelica Neenan, O.P., for sharing her keen artistic sensibilities and recommendations on cover design. I thank Dr. Michael Torre, the series' general editor, for his positive encouragement and helpful suggestions during the closing stages of the editorial and publication process. Finally, I am grateful to my wife, Karen Ann, and to our five children for their Christian patience, support, and generosity in allowing me to devote so many hours to academic endeavors such as this.

Peter A. Pagan