Course Description:

The Church measures time and lives not by the civic calendar but according to its own cycle of feasts and seasons. This course will explore the origins, evolution, and theological meaning of the central feasts and seasons of what is called the liturgical or Church year: the original Christian feast of Sunday; Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany; Lent, Easter, and Pentecost; and with some attention to the feasts of the saints. What do we celebrate on such occasions and how might we celebrate these feasts and seasons "fully," "consciously," and "actively?" Of special interest to those who work with the liturgical year in a variety of ways and for all who seek to understand the way in which the Church expresses itself theologically by means of a particular calendar, as well as for Theology Majors and interested graduate students in theology.

Goals and Objectives:

This course is about the acquisition of knowledge with a view toward the critical evaluation of the liturgical year especially within the Roman Catholic Church and in a variety of contemporary churches today. While pastoral issues may certainly be considered, the course is neither a "how-to-do-the rites" course nor is it concerned with offering blueprints for pastoral practice in the variety of settings from which students come or to which they are going. Rather, this course takes as its premise that the only way to know what the Liturgical Year is is to study its manifestation as it actually appears within the various strata of the Christian tradition. Only then can one adequately evaluate its current shape(s). This means, concretely, both history of the Liturgical Year and the history of its theological interpretation.

More specifically, this course intends to assist students in acquiring:

1. A thorough knowledge of the history and theology of the liturgical year;
2. An ability to articulate the central foci of the various feasts and seasons in the life of the Church; and
3. An ability to celebrate "fully, actively, and consciously" the One Mystery of Christ as it is expressed and reflected in the Sundays, feasts, and seasons of the liturgical year.

Course Requirements:

The above goals and objectives will be met by:
1. Attendance at and participation (discussion, dialogue, etc.) in all class sessions;
2. Keeping up with the assigned reading;
3. Three Unit Take-Home Written Examinations (as indicated below);
4. A Final Research Paper (Graduate Students only)

GRADING:

Grades will be determined on the basis of "full, active, and conscious participation," as well as the take-home exams and paper.

NOTE: The grades A is reserved for what is considered to be exceptional work; an A- or B+ means that work is at a level of solid and high quality, a level above what is necessary to successfully complete the requirements for the course; a B is good solid work; a C+ is a passing grade meaning that an assignment was completed but in need of improvement and/or further development or clarification; and a C, although a passing grade, indicates some serious problems.

GUIDELINES for Research Papers and Projects for Graduate Students

NOTE: The general focus for all projects is How the One Mystery of Christ in his death, resurrection, and gift of the Spirit is either articulated or hindered by the particular Feast in question.

The required project is a research paper of suitable length (15-20 pages) on a particular feast that has not been dealt with in detail in class. The focus of the paper should be: (1) historical; that is, the origins and development of the particular feast; (2) textual; that is the liturgical texts, hymns, lectionary readings, etc. assigned to this feast for both Office and Mass in the Tridentine and current Roman books (and/or in the books of the student's own tradition if not RC); (3) theological; that is, the interpretation of the meaning of the feast; and (4) evaluative of the feast from the perspective of the paschal mystery.

The major points of your paper will be presented orally to the class, at which time an outline of your presentation, a bibliography, and other necessary materials should be distributed to the class. The paper will be evaluated both as a written text and as an oral presentation and two grades will be given it.

Topics for the Research Paper may be from the following list or from another of the student’s own selection:

Feasts of Our Lord (e.g., Presentation, Christ the King, Sacred Heart, etc.)

Feasts of Mary (e.g., Immaculate Conception, Queenship of Mary, Immaculate Heart, the Virgin of Guadalupe, etc.)

Other Feasts of Saints (All Saints, martyrs, etc.)

Other (All Souls, Guardian Angels, etc.)

In addition to the bibliography attached to this syllabus, please see Professor Johnson for additional suggestions after you have done preliminary research in the library.

WHAT IS CHRISTIAN LITURGY?

Christian Liturgy is a religious rite of the Church in which the community renders visibly present in symbols and publicly celebrates the mystery of our salvation already accomplished once for all by Christ, i.e., the mystery of Christ's life in us through the Spirit, thanking and glorifying God for this gift of divine life, in order that, through the power of the Spirit, this life may be intensified in those that participate in the sacred mysteries of the liturgy for the grateful reception of the transforming and healing power which gathers us as the community of God's Son, in order to announce to all people the reign of God in the power of the Spirit, for the building up of the Church into a kingdom of salvation for all, to the perpetual glorification of God according to God's own express wishes. (Robert Taft)

"Liturgy is God's work for us, not our work for God. Only God can show us how to worship God - fittingly, beautifully. Liturgy is not something beautiful we do for God, but something beautiful God does for us and among us. Public worship is neither our work nor our possession; as the Rule of St Benedict reminds us, it is opus Dei, God's work. Our work is to feed the hungry, to refresh the thirsty, to clothe the naked, to care for the sick, to shelter the homeless; to visit the imprisoned; to welcome the stranger; to open our hands and hearts to the vulnerable and the needy. If we are doing those things well, liturgy and the Catholic identity it rehearsees will very likely take care of themselves." (Nathan Mitchell, "The Amen Corner: Being Good and Being Beautiful," Worship 74:6 (November 2000): 557-558)

THE CHRISTIAN MYSTERY – SACRAMENT AND SACRAMENTS

Quod itaque Redemptoris nostri conspicuum fuit in sacramenta transivit.

(Leo I (ca. 451 AD), In Ascensione Dom II)

The Christian faith has only one object: the mystery of Christ dead and risen. But this unique mystery subsists under many different modes. It is prefigured in the Old Testament, it is accomplished historically in the earthly life of Christ, it is contained in mystery in the sacraments, it is lived mystically in souls, it is accomplished socially in the Church, it is consummated eschatologically in the heavenly kingdom. Thus the Christian has at his disposition several registers, a multi-dimensional symbolism, to express this unique reality. The whole of Christian culture consists in grasping the links that exist between Bible and liturgy, Gospel and eschatology, mysticism and liturgy. The application of this method to scripture is called exegesis; applied to liturgy it is called mystagogy. This consists in reading in the rites the mystery of Christ, and in contemplating beneath the symbols the invisible reality. (Jean Daniélou, "Le symbolisme des rites baptismaux," Dieu vivant 1 (1945), 17; English Translation by R. Taft in Beyond East and West (Washington., D.C. 1984), 11).
SUMMARY: THESES ON SACRAMENTAL/LITURGICAL THEOLOGY (R. Taft)

1. The Liturgy of the New Covenant is Jesus Christ.
2. Christian liturgy in the Pauline sense is this same reality, Jesus Christ, in us.
3. This reality is a personal experience operative only through faith.
4. Liturgy in the narrower sense of the word -- actual Christian liturgies, worship services, the liturgical celebration -- is one privileged ground of this divine encounter, one theophany or revelation of God's saving presence among us in the world today.
5. Liturgy is not a thing but a meeting of persons, the celebration of and the expression of an experiential relationship: our relation to God and to one another in Christ through the Spirit. The Holy Spirit, then, is the enabler of Christian worship.
6. Since the basis and source of this grace-filled encounter is the death and resurrection of Jesus, all Christian liturgy plays out this single root metaphor of the paschal mystery as the disclosure, to those who will enter it in faith, of ultimate reality, the final and definitive meaning of all creation and history and life.
7. The actuality, the presentness of it all, is because we are celebrating not a past event, but a permanent present reality, an ongoing call and response, a new life, which we call salvation, that was called into being by those past events.
8. So our liturgy does not celebrate a past event, but a present person, who contains forever all he is and was, and all he has done for us.
9. Christian liturgy, then, is a living icon, one composed primarily of persons, not signs.
10. Jesus, too, is a constitutive component of the liturgy.
11. Christian liturgy, then, is based on the reality of the Risen Christ, called "liturgie de source" in the felicitous phrase of the Melkite theologian Jean Corbon.
12. If the Bible is the Word of God in the words of men, the liturgy is the saving deeds of God in the actions of those men and women who would live in him.
13. Our true Christian liturgy is just the life of Christ in us, both lived and celebrated. That life is none other than what we call the Holy Spirit.
14. Basic to all presences of the Risen Christ in his Church is his presence in faith. Prior to faith is the presence of the Spirit, however. For faith is rooted in the action of the Spirit, which makes faith possible and through which Christ is present.
15. All other modes of Christ's saving presence in the Church are realizations of this basic presence through the Spirit, received in faith.
16. The special presence of Christ in the Church's liturgical ministry rests on the fact that liturgy is the celebration in common of Jesus' saving action among us now. As such it is an expression of the faith of the Church.

EVOLUTION OF THE LITURGICAL YEAR: EXTERNAL

I. First to Third Centuries
A. "Sunday" as the Original Christian Feast

First Day, Eighth Day, Lord's Day, Day of Light, Day of Resurrection, Day of Encounter with Christ, Day of the "Lord's Supper"

B. PASCHA (Easter) and PENTECOST

Early Jewish Christians kept Jewish festivals on traditional dates

By second century Pascha celebrated annually either on Day of Passover (14 Nisan) or Sunday following - great controversy over date not resolved until the Council of Nicea (325)

Pentecost - the 50 Day Easter Season

C. MARTYR MEMORIALS in second century.

Martyrs as "living signs" of the mystery of Christ; cult located at tombs and associated with the "remains" of the martyr ("relics")

II. From the Fourth to the Seventh Centuries

Under the Emperor Constantine's Edict of Toleration (312) Christianity becomes permitted; under Theodosius I (380) becomes official Religion of the Empire. Persecuted "sect" becomes public, political, Imperial Church favored by the State.

Massive Building programs (= Basilicas and Shrines) in "Holy Places" like Jerusalem and Rome

Pascha gets 40 day Season of Preparation (Lent), connected to pre-baptismal instruction of those to be baptized at Easter. Holy Week develops in places like Jerusalem. Taken all over the world by pilgrims

Date of Pascha - first Sunday after the first full moon after the Vernal Equinox (= from March 22 to April 25)

Feasts of Jesus' "Beginnings" - Jan. 6 Epiphany in the East (baptism and "birth"); Dec. 25 Nativity in the West (birth). East and West exchange Feasts

First " Marian" Feasts Develop in the East and Move West:
Feb. 2 (Presentation); March 25 (Annunciation); August 15 (Theotokos); Sept. 8 (Nativity of Mary). First "Roman" Marian Feast is Jan. 1 (7th century)

III. From the Eighth to the Twelfth Centuries

Filling in of the temporal cycle (i.e., Sundays in Ordinary Time)

"Idea Feasts" Develop - Trinity, Corpus Christi

IV. From the Thirteenth to the Fifteenth Centuries
Great increase in feasts of Mary and the Saints (e.g., "Conception" of Mary on Dec. 8; much later becomes "Immaculate" Conception)

Rise of devotion to the Nativity (the Creche) and Passion of Christ (Stations of the Cross, etc.) under the Franciscans

Abuses: Mary and the Saints as "wonder workers" and "mediators" primarily

V. Sixteenth Century Reformation(s)

Attempts to end abuses and catechecize Europe

VI. Seventeenth to Nineteenth Centuries

relative fixity of externals but significant shifts in piety

18th and 19th centuries prepare for 20th century renewal and reform

VII. Twentieth Century

Reform and Renewal (Work of the Bollandists on the lives of the saints)

1963 - Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy from Vatican Council II

1969 - New Roman Calendar

1970's on - Ecumenical Convergence

EVOLUTION OF THE LITURGICAL YEAR:
INTERNAL SHIFTS IN PIETY

I. SHIFTS IN MENTALITY

A. From Eschatology to History?

B. From Symbol to Allegory

C. Doctrinal Shifts

1. Trinity

Council of Nicea (325) - against Arianism

Council of Constantinople (381) - against Semi-Arianism

2. Christology

Council of Ephesus (431) - against Nestorianism
ON THE ORIGINS OF LENT

1. THREE WEEKS OF FINAL PREPARATION OF ADULTS FOR BAPTISM IN GENERAL IN THE EARLY CHURCH

2. THREE WEEKS OF FINAL PREPARATION OF ADULTS FOR EASTER BAPTISM IN ROMAN AND NORTH AFRICAN CHURCHES (cf. Tertullian and Hippolytus)

3. FORTY DAYS OF FINAL PREPARATION OF ADULTS FOR BAPTISM AFTER EPIPHANY IN THE EGYPTIAN CHRISTIAN TRADITION

AFTER COUNCIL OF NICEA IN 325 AD -- AND PROBABLY AS A RESULT OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF EARLY PASchal CONTROVERSIES -- THESE DIFFERENT PRACTICES MERGE AS BAPTISMAL PREPARATION PERIOD BEFORE PASCHA WHEN EASTER BAPTISM NOW BECOMES UNIVERSAL THEOLOGICAL NORM AND/OR IDEAL.

THE "FORTY DAYS" OF LENT:
46, 42, 36, OR 40 DAYS? A MATH QUESTION FOR THE LITURGY

1. If Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on Easter Sunday, and if all the days in between are counted then Lent lasts for a total of 46 days (6 weeks X 7 days = 42 + Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday = 46).

2. But, if Lent really begins on the First Sunday in Lent and ends on Easter Sunday, and if ALL the days are counted then Lent lasts for a total of 42 days (6 weeks X 7 days = 42).

3. But, if Lent begins on the First Sunday in Lent and ends on Easter Sunday and the Sundays are NOT included as part of Lent then Lent lasts for 36 days (6 weeks X 6 days = 36)

4. But, if Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on Easter Sunday, and the SUNDAYS in between are NOT counted as part of Lent, then Lent lasts for a total of 40 days (6 weeks X 6 days = 36 + Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday = 40).

Q: WHICH CALCULATION IS CORRECT?
A: NONE OF THE ABOVE.

1. LENT BEGINS ON THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT, TRADITIONALLY CALLED "QUADRAGESIMA", THE LATIN WORD FOR "FORTY"

2. COUNTING ALL THE DAYS - INCLUDING SUNDAYS -- FROM THAT SUNDAY ON LEADS TO THE FORTY DAYS ENDING NOT AT EASTER BUT ON MAUNDY THURSDAY IN HOLY WEEK.

3. ON MAUNDY THURSDAY EVENING BEGINS WHAT IS CALLED THE "PASchal TRIDUUM," THE THREE GREAT DAYS OF JESUS' DEATH AND RESURRECTION (MAUNDY THURSDAY - Celebration of Last Supper/Footwashing; GOOD FRIDAY - Passion of Christ; EASTER EVE - Great Baptismal Vigil of Easter). With EASTER SUNDAY begins the GREAT 50 DAYS OF CELEBRATION.
4. SINCE SUNDAYS WERE NOT "FASTING DAYS," IT BECAME THE CUSTOM TO ADD FOUR EXTRA DAYS BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF LENT STARTING ON "ASH" WEDNESDAY. TOGETHER WITH FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OF HOLY WEEK THERE WERE THEN 40 DAYS OF FASTING BETWEEN ASH WEDNESDAY AND EASTER SUNDAY.

5. SO, IN THE WEST (ROME):

- ASH WEDNESDAY THROUGH SATURDAY IS ACTUALLY "PRE-LENT," OR PREPARATION FOR LENT

- "THE FORTY DAYS OF LENT" BEGIN ON THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

- THE FORTY DAYS OF LENT END ON THE NIGHT OF MAUNDY THURSDAY, THE BEGINNING OF THE "PASCHAL TRIDUUM"

6. THE CALCULATION OF THE "FORTY DAYS" IN THE CHRISTIAN EAST (THE BYZANTINE TRADITION)

   7 WEEKS (49 DAYS) minus THE FIRST SUNDAY (Lent begins on a Monday already in Cyril and Egeria) = 48 DAYS minus ALL OF "GREAT (Holy) WEEK" = 42 DAYS minus LAZARUS SATURDAY AND PALM SUNDAY as Festal Bridge Between Lent and Great Week = 40 DAYS

   IN OTHER WORDS, IN THE WEST (ROME) HOLY WEEK (except for the TRIDUUM) IS COUNTED AS PART OF LENT; IN THE EAST LENT PROPERLY SPEAKING IS SEPARATED FROM THE PASCHAL FAST OF GREAT (Holy) WEEK by LAZARUS SATURDAY AND PALM SUNDAY

TRADITIONAL SCHOLARSHIP (Dix, et. al.): sees the origins of Lent as part of the further backwards development of the pre-Paschal Fast, that is, the fast of Friday and Saturday become extended backwards to encompass first the entire week -- the six days -- before Pascha and then eventually the 40 days themselves. Hence, the Roman pattern which includes Holy Week as part of "Lent" is viewed as the more primitive and, thus, original pattern.

MORE RECENT SCHOLARSHIP (Talley, Bradshaw, Johnson): sees the 40 days as a self contained unit already associated in Egypt with preparation for Baptism 40 days after Epiphany in a baptismal celebration associated with the reading about the initiation of a Lazarus like figure. Early Eastern sources suggest strongly that the 2 or 6 day pre-paschal fast was something altogether separate from the "40 days" and the forty days themselves were not pre-paschal but post-Epiphany. In other words, "Lent" develops when, after Nicea, the "40 days," however they may be calculated, get joined, as preparation for Easter Baptism, to the already, separately existing, 6 day pre-paschal fast. Hence, the Eastern-Byzantine pattern of Lent, which does not include Holy Week, is viewed as reflecting the more primitive and, thus, original pattern. Even at Rome traces of this kind of development exist as what was there a possibly original three-week baptismal preparation period (see the three scrutinies on

1It is interesting to note here that the only "canonical" Gospel, John, to refer to the raising of Lazarus is also the only Gospel to mention (three times and then correct itself) that Jesus himself baptized. In addition to Talley, Origins, see his essay on "Lent in Alexandria," Bradshaw, "Diem baptismi sollemniorem," and Johnson, "From Three Weeks," and "Preparation for Pascha?"
Lent III, IV, and V with their respective Johannine Readings) also gets attached to the pre-paschal Holy (or Passion) Week.

8. EASTER SUNDAY AS THE "FIRST" OF "FIFTY" DAYS CULMINATING IN "PENTECOST," THE 50th DAY; ONE GREAT BIG SUNDAY THAT LASTS FOR FIFTY DAYS

9. SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS IN THE 50 DAYS:
   - Doubting Thomas on Easter 2
   - Good Shepherd on Easter 4
   - Ascension Thursday on the 40th Day
   - Gift of the Spirit, the very fruit of Jesus' death and resurrection for us on the 50th Day
PASSION (not PALM) SUNDAY

1. 4th century Jerusalem: Procession with Palms from the Mt of Olives into Jerusalem on the afternoon of the Sunday before Easter

2. Spreads to Western Churches with classic hymn: "All Glory Laud and Honor"

3. At Rome the Sunday before Easter was called Passion Sunday; Passion of Jesus from Matthew 26-27 was read as Gospel

4. Eventually Rome adopts Palms procession for the Entrance Rite of the Liturgy on this Day

5. TODAY: Passion from either Matthew (A), Mark (B), or Luke (C) is Gospel Reading; Distribution, blessing, Gospel Reading of Jesus' entry to Jerusalem, and procession with Palms functions as the Entrance Rite; note of triumph before focus on Passion
STRUCTURE AND CONTENTS OF THE EASTER VIGIL
BEFORE THE MISSAL OF PAUL VI

(Restored to Holy Saturday night by Pope Pius XII in 1951 as a "one year" experiment - had been celebrated on Holy Saturday morning since promulgation of Missal of Pius V in 1570; Pius V had forbidden all afternoon and evening masses in 1566).
