
“CURRENT PERSPECTIVES ON THE UNITED STATES AND OHIO SUPREME COURTS”

Presented by the Notre Dame Cleveland Lawyer Alumni Committee

The Notre Dame Cleveland Lawyer Alumni Committee is sponsoring a continuing legal education (CLE) program entitled “Current Perspectives on the United States and Ohio Supreme Courts” on Thursday, October 16, 2008 at Cleveland’s Center for Pastoral Leadership (located at 28700 Euclid Ave, Cleveland, 44092).

Justice Maureen O’Connor and Justice Terrence O’Donnell of the Supreme Court of Ohio will offer their expertise on the Current Perspectives on Supreme Court of Ohio Practice and Procedure, and Matthew T. Fitzsimmons of Nicola, Gudbranson & Cooper will moderate this portion of the program. Some of the topics to be covered are case statistics, factors and considerations taken into account when deciding to accept a case for review, and helpful tips on improving briefs and oral arguments.

Professor Richard W. Garnett from the University of Notre Dame Law School will offer his insight on the United States Supreme Court, and The Honorable William H. Baughman, United States Magistrate Judge of the Northern District of Ohio will Moderate this portion of the program. Topics include the Supreme Court’s decision on Second Amendment rights in Heller, the structure of the Court under Chief Justice John Roberts, upcoming cases, and potential effects the 2008 Presidential Election may have on the composition and direction of the court.

This informative program is one that no Ohio lawyer will want to miss. The three-hour program (CLE credit pending) begins at 2:00 p.m. The Registration Fee is $75 in advance, or $100 at the door.
