

Workshop to report on Progress in Indiana Science Modeling

November 12, 2011 at University High School,
Carmel, Indiana

Breakfast snacks and coffee

Session 1 - 9 am

Introductions

Jenny Hicks - welcome - the status of K-12 science learning in Indiana

Gordon Berry - brief report on classroom and school observations

Hugh Ross: multidimensional whiteboarding - a hands-on session

Session 2 - about 10:30 am

Breakout sessions

Comments/discussions on successes/failures in the teachers' modeling experiences

Physics (Hugh Ross),

Chemistry (Laura Slocum, Ben Buehler and Lynda Rose)

Biology (Gordon Berry and Jenny Hicks)

Lunch break - about 11:30 am

Session 3 - about noon

Breakout sessions continued

..... Developing whiteboards for presentations at session 4

Session 4 - about 1:00 pm

Reports from the breakout sessions

Gordon Berry: developing student/student questioning - a hands-on session

Decision-making/financing for summer workshops in 2012 and beyond

Plus any other modeling topics -

Hand out completion certificates

Session 5 - go home - about 3:30 pm

Thank you to Laura Slocum for hosting us at the University High School