

Quiz 1. January 21, 09. Name

1. Describe with a number of short phrases the kinds of mathematics that the Babylonians were able to do and that their clay tablets recorded.

2. Which three architectural features of the Parthenon demonstrate the remarkable attention to detail as well as the remarkable precision with which the Greek architects constructed it.

3. List the three famous straight edge and compass problems that the mathematicians of Greek antiquity wrestled with.