CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix
Preface: Godly Letters xi

PROLOGUE

CHAPTER ONE
A Costly Canaan: Morton and the Margins of American Literature 3

PART ONE. VISION

CHAPTER TWO
Advancing the Gospel, Dividing the Church: Design and Vision 37
in Bradford’s Plymouth
   I. The Triumph of Design 37
   II. The Failure of Vision 72

CHAPTER THREE
“A Strange Poise of Spirit”: The Life and Deaths of Thomas Shepard 105

CHAPTER FOUR
The Charter and the “Model”: Writing Winthrop’s Holy State 148

PART TWO. DOCTRINE

CHAPTER FIVE
Doubt’s Venture, Faith’s Call: Shepard’s Activist Calvinism 195
   I. Calvinist Activity in The Sincere Convert 195
   II. The Spiritual Context of The Sound Believer 217

© 2006 University of Notre Dame Press
CHAPTER SIX
Regeneration through Violence: Hooker and the Morale of Preparation 248
  I. “Suffer the Words” 248
  II. “A Holy Kind of Violence” 275
  III. “Hammering a Truth” 303
  IV. “I See Not a Savior” 323

CHAPTER SEVEN
Primitive Comfort: The Spiritual Witness of John Cotton 331

PART THREE. REVISION

CHAPTER EIGHT
Wives and Lovers: Reaction and the Gender of Puritanism 369
  I. Shepard’s Virgins 369
  II. Woman as Husband 391
  III. Winthrop’s Wife 415

CHAPTER NINE
Marching Orders: Johnson’s Summary Syntax 437
  I. The Meaning of New England 437
  II. The End of the World 469

CHAPTER TEN
Government in Exile: Williams and the Decay of Dialogue 496

EPILOGUE

CHAPTER ELEVEN
“God’s Altar”: The Fall to Poetry 539

Notes 576
Index 634