

Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
Svend Andersen and Kees van Kooten Niekerk
ONE
The Conception of Ethics and the Ethical in K. E. Løgstrup's The Ethical Demand	9
Hans Fink
TWO
In the Eyes of a Lutheran Philosopher: How Løgstrup Treated Moral Thinkers	29
Svend Andersen
THREE
The Genesis of K. E. Løgstrup's View of Morality as a Substitute	55
Kees van Kooten Niekerk
FOUR
Principles and Situations: K. E. Løgstrup and British Moral Philosophy of the Twentieth Century	85
Brenda Almond
FIVE
The Use of Principles in Ethical Situations: A Response to Almond	103
Anne Marie Pahuus

vi	SIX The Liquid Modern Adventures of the “Sovereign Expression of Life” Zygmunt Bauman	113
	SEVEN The Ethical Demand in a Global Perspective: A Response to Bauman Øjvind Larsen	139
	EIGHT Human Nature and Human Dependence: What Might a Thomist Learn from Reading Løgstrup? Alasdair MacIntyre	147
	NINE Sovereign Expressions of Life, Virtues, and Actions: A Response to MacIntyre Svein Aage Christoffersen	167
	TEN Donum or Datum? K. E. Løgstrup’s Religious Account of the Gift of Life Hans S. Reinders	177
	ELEVEN A Response to Hans Reinders’s “Donum or Datum?” Jakob Wolf	207
	Contributors	217
	Index	219