Contents

Foreword ix
Francine Cardman

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction 1
Maura A. Ryan

Part 1 Freedom-in-relation: Autonomy, Relationality, Solidarity

Introduction 18

One Feminist Theology and Sexual Ethics 20
Lisa Sowle Cahill

Two Human Rights and Women’s Rights: Initiatives and Interventions in the Name of Universality 47
David Hollenbach, S.J.

Three Transnational Feminism and the Rhetoric of Religion 75
Serene Jones

Four Postcolonial Challenges and the Practice of Hospitality 109
Letty M. Russell
Part 2  A Just and True Love

Introduction 134

Five  Self and Other in a Theological Framework 135
Gene Outka

Six  Justice and Love Shall Kiss 163
Ada María Isasi-Díaz

Seven  Mouth to Mouth, Person to Person 197
Ronald R. Garet

Part 3  The Meaning and Practice of Love

Introduction 232

Eight  Feminist Ethics and the Sexual Abuse of Children: Reading Christian Origins 234
Mary Rose D’Angelo

Nine  The Sexual Abuse Scandal in the Catholic Church: Implications for Sexual Ethics 273
Brian F. Linnane, S.J.

Ten  “Framework for Love”: Toward a Renewed Understanding of Christian Vocation 303
Anne E. Patrick, S.N.J.M.

Eleven  Virtuous Decision Makers and Incompetent Patients: The Case of the Conjoined Twins 338
M. Cathleen Kaveny
Part 4  Truth and Love in Ecclesial Community

Introduction 368

Twelve  Contraceptive Use and the Authority of the Church: A Case Study on Natural Law and Moral Discernment 369
Jean Porter

Thirteen  The Second Great Argument about Freedom 406
Leslie Griffin

Fourteen  John Paul II’s Understanding of the Church as Teacher of Truth about Humankind 429
Charles E. Curran

Fifteen  Neither Thick nor Thin: Politics and Polity in the Ethics of Margaret A. Farley 453
William O’Neill, S.J.

Selected Publications of Margaret A. Farley 480

Contributors 490

Index 492