CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii
List of Illustrations ix

Visuality and Materiality in the Story of Tristan and Isolde 1
Jutta Eming, Ann Marie Rasmussen, and Kathryn Starkey

PART I. Courtly Bodies, Seeing, and Emotions

ONE. The Light of Courtly Society: Blanscheflur and Riwalin 19
Jan-Dirk Müller

TWO. How to Find Love in Literature: Reading Gottfried von Strassburg’s Tristan and His Cave of Lovers 41
Haiko Wandhoff

THREE. Why Do Tristan and Isolde Make Love?
The Love Potion as a Milestone in the History of Sexuality 65
James A. Schultz

FOUR. Seeing Love in the World of Lovers: Late Medieval Love Literature as a Fulfillment of Gottfried’s Tristan 83
Ludger Lieb

© University of Notre Dame
PART II. Media, Representation, and Performance

FIVE. From Myth to Emblem to Panorama
Michael Curschmann

SIX. Framing Tristan—Taming Tristan? The Materiality of Text and Body in Hans Sachs’s Tragedia
Elke Koch

SEVEN. Time, Space, and Mind: Tristan in Three Dimensions in Fourteenth-Century France
Amanda Luyster

EIGHT. Tristan Love: Elite Self-Fashioning in Italian Frescoes of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Centuries
Klaus Krüger

PART III. The Visual Culture of Tristan

NINE. Discourses of Curiosity: The Materiality of Meaning in Edition Studies and Cultural Studies
Martin Baisch

TEN. Textual Worlds—Pictorial Worlds: Interpreting the Tristan Story in Illuminated Manuscripts
Elke Brüggen and Hans-Joachim Ziegeler

ELEVEN. Specific and Generic Scenes in Verse Tristan Illustrations
Stephanie Cain Van D’Elden

TWELVE. The Artistic Context of Some Northern French Illustrated Tristan Manuscripts
Margaret Alison Stones

List of Contributors

Index

© University of Notre Dame