SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY EUROPEAN DRAWINGS
IN MIDWESTERN COLLECTIONS

The Age of Bernini, Rembrandt, and Poussin

© UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
This publication is a project of the Midwest Art History Society (MAHS) and is partially supported by the Samuel H. Kress Foundation.

© UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY

European Drawings in Midwestern Collections

The Age of Bernini, Rembrandt, and Poussin

Edited by

SHELLEY PERLOVE AND GEORGE S. KEYES

with essays and catalogue entries by

Babette Bohn, Alvin L. Clark, Jr., Robert Randolph Coleman, George S. Keyes, Judith W. Mann, Kristi A. Nelson, and Shelley Perlove

University of Notre Dame Press
Notre Dame, Indiana

© UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
Dedicated to

Suzanne Folds McCullagh, esteem scholar and colleague,

outstanding Chair and Curator of Prints and Drawings,

Art Institute of Chicago
Contents

Acknowledgments ix
List of Abbreviations and Authors xi

Introduction. Discovering and Rediscovering Gems of the Midwest: Drawings from the Age of Bernini, Rembrandt, and Poussin
SHELLEY PERLOVE 1

The Italian School. From Idea to Creation: Seventeenth-Century Italian Drawings in the Midwest
BABETTE BOHN 17

The Dutch School. Documenting the World on Paper
GEORGE S. KEYES 113

The Flemish School. Flemish Drawings
KRISTI A. NELSON 201

The French School. From Mannerism to Rubenism: Aspects of Drawing in Seventeenth-Century France
ALVIN L. CLARK, JR. 223

Bibliography 285
Index of Artists 303