CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations xi

Acknowledgments xiii

Introduction 1

_Eugene O’Brien_

PART I. Heaney and Death

1 Surviving Death in Heaney’s _Human Chain_ 29

_Anthony J. Auge_

2 Death and Everyman: Imagining a “Not Unwelcoming Emptiness” 49

_Magdalena Kay_

3 Squarings 71

_Helen Vendler_

PART II. Heaney’s Later Style

4 The Freed Speech of “Equivocal Words”: Seamus Heaney’s Door into the Light 89

_Michael R. Molino_

Copyright 2016 University of Notre Dame
viii  Contents

5  Happening Once for Ever: Heaney’s Late Style  107
   Neil Corcoran

6  “The Whole of Me A-Patter”: Image, Feeling, and Finding Form in Heaney’s Late Work  129
   Meg Tyler

PART III.  Translation and Transnational Poetics

7  “Renewed, Transfigured, in Another Pattern”: Metaphor and Displacement in Seamus Heaney’s Human Chain  151
   Michael Parker

8  The Reluctant Transatlanticist: “Like a Weeping Willow Inclined to the Appetites of Gravity”  173
   Elmer Kennedy-Andrews

9  Crediting Marvels or Taking Responsibility: Vocation and Declarations of Intent by Seamus Heaney after Seeing Things  199
   Bernard O’Donoghue

PART IV.  Luminous Things and Gifts

10 Seamus Heaney’s Gifts  219
    Henry Hart

11 “Deep Down Things”: The Inner Lives of Things in Later Heaney  239
    Richard Rankin Russell

12 “Door into the Light”: The Later Poems of Seamus Heaney  261
    Stephen Regan

Copyright 2016 University of Notre Dame
PART V. Usual and Unusual Spaces

13 “Scatter-Eyed / And Daunted”: The “Matrixial Gaze” in Seeing Things
   Moynagh Sullivan 279

14 “Beyond Maps and Atlases”: Transfiguration and Immanence in the Later Poems of Seamus Heaney
   Daniel Tobin 300

15 The Poetics of Reverie and Revelation in the Last Poems
   Rand Brandes 329

16 “The Door Stands Open”: Liminal Spaces in the Later Heaney
   Eugene O’Brien 348

Works Cited 370

List of Contributors 388

Index 390